

MERGER AGREEMENT Between UNITE HERE Locals 17 and 21

In order to achieve greater efficiency and stability, to enhance the best interests of the membership, and to promote the general welfare, UNITE HERE Locals 17 and 21 agree that their Local Unions shall merge into one Local Union on the terms and conditions set forth below.

1. Locals 17 and 21 shall merge, effective upon approval in the elections described in paragraph 15 of this merger agreement, and the newly merged Local Union shall be known as UNITE HERE Local 17.

2. Newly Merged Local 17 shall be governed by the UNITE HERE International Constitution, the Local Union's bylaws, attached as Appendix A, and this merger agreement. In the event of any conflict between any provision of the International Constitution or the Local Unions' bylaws and any of the terms of this merger agreement, the International Union Constitution shall prevail over this merger agreement, and the terms of this merger agreement shall prevail over the Local 17 and Local 21 bylaws.

3. Local 17's bylaws shall be amended to increase the number of Executive Board members by one, as set forth in Exhibit A. Leah Riley, which a member of Local 21's Executive Board, shall fill such Executive Board seat. Accordingly, from the effective date of the merger until Local 17's next regularly scheduled officer elections, the officers of the newly merged Local Union shall be as follows:

President: Christa Mello
Director of Organization/Senior Vice-President: Rosa Valenzuela
Financial Secretary-Treasurer: Sheigh Freeberg
Vice President: Uriel Perez
Recording Secretary: Wade Luneburg
Executive Board: Betelehem Ali
Executive Board: Mike Dougherty
Executive Board: Jemal Dube
Executive Board: John Conliffe
Executive Board: Maria Pena
Executive Board: Teresa Arens
Executive Board: Leah Riley
Trustee: Desiree King
Trustee: Jill Gegen
Trustee: Rosann Kasper

4. The officers and employees of Locals 17 and Local 21, or any other person holding any assets or property of Local 17 and Local 21, shall be empowered and authorized, and may be required from time to time, on and after the effective date of this merger, to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, upon the request of Local 17, all such deeds, documents, authorizations or instruments as may be necessary, appropriate, or indicated in order to convey, transfer, or confirm the right, title, and interest of Local 17 in and to such assets or property.

5. The merged Local's headquarters shall be located in Minneapolis, MN or St. Paul, MN.

6. Local 17 shall also assume all obligations of Locals 17 and 21 of every kind and character, including collective bargaining obligations, and shall succeed to every and all rights and privileges of Locals 17 and 21 as of and subsequent to the effective date of the merger. The merger shall not be deemed to impair, alter, or otherwise affect any rights, privileges, duties, and responsibilities vested at the time of the merger in any of the Local Unions.

7. On the effective date of this merger, the members in good standing of Locals 17 and 21 shall become and remain members in good standing of Local 17 without payment of any initiation fee. The accumulated membership standings of the members of Local 17 and Local 21 shall be considered, for Local Union purposes, the membership standings in Local 17 and shall be reflected in the membership records thereof.

8. The merger shall not be deemed to impair or otherwise affect any federal or state certification of Local 17 and Local 21 as collective bargaining representatives or agent, or any right or obligation of Local 17 and Local 21 under any collective bargaining agreement for checkoff authorizations; but, all rights, privileges, duties, and responsibilities vested in Local 17 and Local 21, pursuant to such certifications, agreements or authorizations are to be deemed vested in Local 17.

9. Any health and welfare trust or pension trust to which Local 17 and Local 21 are parties shall not be deemed to be altered by virtue of this merger. All rights, privileges and directions of powers of appointment vested in Local 17 and Local 21 and relative to such trust shall become vested in and exercisable in Local 17 acting by and through its appropriate officers and executive board.

10. The officers of Local 17 and Local 21 are directed and instructed to take any and all necessary and indicated steps to fulfill the provisions of this agreement on the effective date of the merger, the officers of Local 21's official terms of office shall expire, except as set forth in paragraph 3.

11. The Executive Board of Locals 17 shall be expanded as identified in paragraph 3 above.

12. All staff and office employees of Local 17 and Local 21 shall, upon the effective date of the merger, be deemed to be employees of Local 17 without interruption of their employment status, and will be subject to the terms and conditions of employees of Local 17 staff and office employees unless represented by a Labor Union. Until replaced in due course, individuals serving as Local 21 stewards shall continue to serve in the same capacity with Local 17, and, shall continue to exercise the same responsibilities with respect to contract administration as before. Members in Local 21 bargaining units shall continue to select committees to participate in negotiations with their respective employers. Decisions with respect to contract administration and negotiation shall be made as before, to the extent consistent with Local 17's Bylaws and practice.

13. The parties to this agreement intend that the provisions of this agreement be separable. Should any provision or provisions of this agreement be held invalid by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this agreement, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

14. Upon the effective date of the merger, Local 17 shall continue to be governed by the UNITE HERE Constitution and Local 17's Bylaws as amended, provided that the bylaw amendments are approved by Local 17's membership and the International Union in accordance with Local 17's bylaws and the International Union Constitution. Said amended Bylaws are those in Exhibit A of this Merger Agreement.

15. This agreement has been approved by the respective Executive Boards of Locals 17 and 21 and shall be submitted to separate secret ballot votes of the respective memberships of Locals 17 and 21, after notice and an opportunity for discussion, which shall be determined by a majority of those voting. This agreement shall also be submitted to the UNITE HERE Executive Committee for its approval. If this agreement is not so approved, it shall be null and void and of no effect.

16. The parties hereto certify that they execute this agreement with the full authority to do so by their respective Local Unions, and that each of the merging Local Unions shall be fully and completely bound in accordance with the provisions herein contained.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement.

OF

UNITE HERE LOCAL 17

Effective ~~March 13,~~ 2019

ARTICLE I

NAME AND OBJECT

Section 1. This organization shall be known as UNITE HERE Local 17 of Minnesota, affiliated with UNITE HERE International Union.

Section 2. The purpose of this organization shall be to organize all persons within its jurisdiction; to establish and maintain equitable wage scales and working conditions; to elevate moral, social and intellectual standing of its members; to guard their financial interests; to promote their general welfare and the Local's cardinal principles of truth, justice and morality; to secure employment for its members and to uphold the dignity of labor; and to assist employees in the hotel, motel, restaurant, airline catering, food service catering, sports arena vending and concessions, racing, gaming and all other related industries falling under the jurisdiction of the UNITE HERE International Union.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership of this organization shall consist of an unlimited number of workers in the hotel, motel, restaurant, airline catering, sports arena vending and concessions, racing, gaming and all other related industries, who agree to abide by the by-laws of this Local and the Constitution of the UNITE HERE International Union, as presently in effect or as hereafter amended.

Section 2. Acquiring Membership. A person eligible for membership and working within the jurisdiction of this Local Union, making application for membership, shall become a member of this Local and the International Union upon receipt of the membership application and the dues and fees which may be required.

Section 3. Passive Membership. Any person who is a manager, owner or proprietor or any person who is employed outside the jurisdiction of this Local Union and not employed in the jurisdiction of this Local Union may be accepted for or hold membership in this Local Union only as a passive member, provided such person maintains no affiliation with a proprietors' organization hostile to this Union.

(a) Passive members shall not be entitled to voice or vote or to attend meetings of the Local Union. They shall be ineligible for election to any office in this Local Union or for any position as a delegate representing the Local Union.

(b) Passive membership is hereby declared a privilege, revocable at will by the Executive Board of the Local Union or by the Executive Committee of the International Union. Such revocation shall not be appealable.

(c) Any member desiring to change his/her membership status from active to passive or passive to active must appear before the Executive Board of the Local Union and such change in status can only be granted upon the approval of the Executive Board.

Section 4. General Membership. The term "general membership" as used in these by-laws shall mean all members in good standing of Local 17. A decision of the general membership shall require a majority of those voting. The general membership shall be the supreme authority of the Local Union in the following respects:

a) It shall have the power and the authority to adopt or amend the by-laws, rules and regulations.

b) It shall elect all Officers of the Local Union.

c) It shall vote on the dues and assessments or service fees for the members of Local 17 subject to the provisions of the UNITE HERE Constitution.

d) All salaries, wages, and compensation for officers, employees and delegates of the Union shall be recommended by the Executive Board and shall be subject to approval or ratification by majority vote of the membership present at a regular or special meeting.

Section 5. Good Standing. Members who are less than two months behind with their dues shall be considered to be in good standing. Members on an extended leave of absence shall remit his/her dues at the rate established by the general membership on or before the last day of the current month in which they are due. Any member two (2) months arrears in dues shall be considered automatically suspended from membership.

Section 6. No Discrimination. There shall be no discrimination against any member, or applicant for membership for reasons of race, creed, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, national origin, citizenship status, documented status, ancestry, age, disability or political persuasion.

Section 7. Member Duties. Members shall be expected to attend all meetings when possible, take an active interest in the affairs of the union, work to build the strength of the union, honor all union picket lines, help organize the unorganized and uphold the principles of trade unionism.

ARTICLE III

MEETINGS

Section 1. Meeting Schedule. The regular membership meetings of this Local Union shall be held on the third Wednesday of the even numbered months. The Executive Board shall set the meeting times and locations. The membership shall be appropriately notified of the meeting schedule. All membership meetings of this Local Union shall be held in accordance with Roberts Rules of Order.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President, by majority vote of the Executive Board, upon the written request of 300 members in good standing, or by vote of the Union. In any case, all members shall be notified of such meeting by the Financial Secretary-Treasurer. No business shall be transacted other than that for which the meeting is called.

Section 3. Quorum. Fifteen (15) members, including one qualified to preside, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

Section 4. Members shall be expected to attend all meetings when possible and to take an active interest in the affairs of the Union.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. Officers of this Local Union shall be the President, Senior Vice President, the Financial-Secretary Treasurer, the Vice President, Recording Secretary and three trustees. The five officers, three trustees, and seven Executive Board members at large shall constitute the Executive Board of the Local Union.

Section 2. Any officer or employee of this Local entitled to a vacation shall be required to take such vacation within two years after becoming entitled to same. If such officer or employee fails to take such vacation, they shall be deemed to have waived the right to same.

Section 3. An officer or Executive Board member shall not be absent from two (2) consecutive Executive Board meetings, unless excused because of illness, working schedule or other justifiable reason. An officer or Executive Board member found to have violated this provision pursuant to a decision on charges filed under these Bylaws, Article X, may be removed from office.

Section 4. An officer or Executive Board member shall not be absent from fifty percent of the membership meetings in one year, unless excused because of illness, working schedule or other justifiable reason. An officer or Executive Board member found to have violated this provision pursuant to a decision on charges filed under these Bylaws, Article X, may be removed from office.

Section 5. Members of the executive board who are not being otherwise compensated by the Local Union will receive a $100 stipend per month that they attend the executive board meeting.

ARTICLE V

NOMINATION AND ELECTION

Section 1. The election of officers shall be held by secret ballot in the month of October 2020 and every three years thereafter among the members in good standing in this Local Union. No write-in votes shall be permitted. The election shall be conducted at a location or locations designated by the Election Committee.

Section 2. A reasonable opportunity shall be given to the members to nominate candidates for office. Nominations of officers shall be received in the month of September 2020, and every three years thereafter.

Section 3. In order to be eligible to be nominated for office, a member must meet the following criteria:

- a) have been an active member in continuous good standing for a period of 24 calendar months immediately preceding nominations.
- b) No member may be eligible to be nominated to any office in this Local Union unless they are employed or available for employment in the jurisdiction of this Local Union or is an officer or employee of this Local Union or the International Union.
- c) In order for any member to be eligible to be nominated for office in this Local Union, they must be present at the nominating meeting or must have submitted a written statement to the Financial Secretary-Treasurer prior to the opening of nominations, indicating his/her willingness to accept the nomination if his/her name is proposed.
- d) No member may be nominated for more than one office.
- e) Retired members are ineligible to run for office.

Section 4. The Financial Secretary-Treasurer, not less than 15 days prior to the date of nominations, shall mail to each member in good standing to their last known home address a notice of the offices to be filled and the time, date, place and manner of submitting nominations, as well as the time, date and place of the election. The notice shall bear the signatures of the President and the Financial Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 5. An Election Committee of five members in good standing who are eligible to be elected as Officers or Executive Board members, the majority appointed by the President and the minority appointed by the Vice President, shall take charge of the election and provide safeguards to ensure a fair election. The election committee shall conduct the election in accordance with the guidelines promulgated by the International Union pursuant to Article 8, Section 1 of the International Constitution. No candidate for office or any officer serving out his/her term of office shall be eligible to serve on the Election Committee. The Election Committee shall have the right to set the procedures for the election, including whether the election shall be conducted by mail ballot (if authorized by the President or Executive Committee of the International Union), or by voting in person at designated polling place(s), and pass on the eligibility of all candidates and their decisions shall be subject to appeal in accordance with the International Constitution, Article XII.

Section 6. Designation as a Slate

a) Any group of candidates that wishes to appear on the ballot as a slate shall submit a written request for such designation to the Election Committee at least ten (10) days before the election. If the election is to be conducted by mail ballot, any such request shall be submitted at least ten (10) days before the ballots are scheduled to be mailed to the members.

b) A request for designation as a slate shall be approved by the Election Committee provided that the slate: (i) includes a candidate for at least two-thirds of the separate categories of offices or positions to be filled at the election (including categories which may have been filled by acclamation), and (ii), where two or more places are to be filled in a category of elective offices or positions, includes at least one-half of the number of persons to be elected to each such office or position.

c) Permission may be withheld by the Election Committee if the slate designation requested is so similar to that selected by another slate as to mislead voters.

d) Any candidate in an election may appeal to the President for a decision granting or denying designation as a slate.

e) If a request for designation as a slate is approved, the ballot shall provide space at the head of the list of candidates so that one vote may be cast for all candidates appearing under such slate. Each candidate in such slate, however, shall in addition have printed opposite her or his name, a space or box in which an individual vote for him or her may be cast and recorded

Section 7. Any candidate shall have the right to have an observer at the polls and at the counting of the ballots. All observers must be active members in good standing in this Local Union.

Section 8. The votes cast by members of this Local Union shall be counted and the results for each office shall be announced and published separately. The Financial Secretary-Treasurer shall preserve for one year the ballots and all other records pertaining to the election, or as required by law.

Section 9. The installation of all officers-elect shall take place not later than one month following the election. The outgoing Officers shall immediately turn over all books, records, property and assets belonging to the Local to the newly installed Officers. Officers elect shall attend the installation meeting, unless ill or in possession of some other justifiable reason. An officer elect found to have violated this provision pursuant to a decision on charges filed on under these Bylaws, Article X, may be prohibited from assuming office.

ARTICLE VI

VACANCIES

Section 1. Vacancies in any office shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the President, subject to the approval of the Executive Board.

Section 2. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the Executive Board, subject to approval by the membership.

ARTICLE VII
RESIGNATIONS

Section 1. Officers, with the exception of bonded officers, shall have the privilege of resigning at any regular membership meeting, provided no charges are pending against them and their resignations are submitted in writing.

Section 2. A bonded officer shall present his resignation in writing at least one membership meeting before it is acted upon. If the Board of Trustees reports that the financial accounts of the Local Union are in proper order and there are no charges pending, the resignation may be accepted.

ARTICLE VIII
DELEGATES

Section 1. Where permitted, delegates to all bodies with which the Local Union votes to affiliate shall be appointed by the President, subject to approval of the Executive Board.

Section 2. Delegates to the International Convention may be nominated and elected at the same time as the regular nomination and election of officers is held if there is an International Convention scheduled during that term of office. In any event, delegates to the International Convention shall be elected not less than 90 days prior to the date of the Convention.

Section 3. The procedures and requirements, including the notice pertaining to the nomination and election of officers as set forth in these by-laws, shall (where necessary) apply equally to the nomination and election of delegates to the International Convention.

ARTICLE IX
DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 1. President: The President shall be the Principal Officer of the Local Union. They shall be a full-time salaried officer. They shall perform the following duties:

- a) They shall preside at all regular and special meetings and at all meetings of the Executive Board. They shall have the authority to call special meetings of the Executive Board. They shall take such action as they deem necessary to preserve order and decorum.

- g) They shall be the official representative of the Local Union in all collective bargaining with employers for wages and working conditions. They shall serve as the chairperson of all negotiating committees. They may delegate this authority to a representative of the Local Union, who shall act under the President's direction and supervision.
- h) They shall employ, terminate, and supervise business agents, organizers or other employees needed by the Local Union.
- i) They shall assign tasks and direct the organizational work of all staff members. The President shall make every effort to enlarge the membership of the Union.

j) They shall visit or cause to be visited under his/her direction and supervise all establishments under contract with this Local Union.

k) They shall endeavor to maintain congenial relations between employers and members of the Union and to obtain employment for all job applicants.

l) They shall be the official representative of the Union in the community, in the media and at meetings, conferences or conventions of organizations that the Local Union is affiliated with and generally act as the chief spokesperson of the Union; and all other duties which are consistent with his/her office.

Section 2. Senior Vice President: They shall be compensated for all time spent on duties on behalf of the Union. They shall preform the following duties.

a) They shall be responsible for the development and growth of the Local Union through the organizational efforts They and the President determine are appropriate.

b) They shall assist the President in the performance of the duties of that office as requested by the President.

c) They shall have the full authority of the President in the President's absence.

d) In the absence of the President or Financial Secretary-Treasurer they shall co-sign all checks for payment of money from Union funds along with either the President or the Financial Secretary-Treasurer.

e) In the absence of a presiding officer, they shall call meetings to order and preside.

f) They shall, by virtue of office, be a delegate to the International Union Convention.

Section 3. Financial Secretary -Treasurer: The Financial Secretary-Treasurer shall be the chief financial officer of the Local Union. They shall be compensated for all time spent on duties on behalf of the Union. They shall perform the following duties:

- a) They shall keep or cause to be kept a complete and accurate set of books in such a manner that it will show all of the business transactions of the Local Union, including its income and expenditures and its assets and liabilities.
- b) They shall make a financial report to the membership at each regular meeting, giving an official accounting of all monies collected and expended by the Union.
- c) They shall, when feasible, keep regular office hours for the convenience of the members, as well as the employers, and perform such other duties as may be required of them.
- d) They shall have charge of and attend to all official correspondence of the Union, impress the seal thereon and keep a copy of all such correspondence. They shall attend to all clerical work of the office unless otherwise provided for. They shall counter-sign all working and withdrawal cards. They shall sign all documents required by the Local and the International Union for the protection and welfare of the members.
- e) They shall compile or cause to be compiled under their direction and supervision the roster of the Local Union as required by the International Constitution.
- f) They shall keep a complete record of all committees and officers of the Local Union. They shall notify all committee members of their appointment. They shall take or cause to be taken a true and faithful record of the proceedings of the Local Union's meetings which shall be transcribed in the minute book provided for that purpose by the Local. They shall record the roll call of all officers present at all meetings and record the attendance in the minute book.
- g) They shall be a delegate to the International Union Convention by virtue of office.

Section 4. Vice President: They shall be compensated for all time spent on duties on behalf of the Union. They shall perform the following duties.

- a) They shall aid and assist the President in the discharge of their duties as requested by the President and in preserving order and decorum in the Local.
- b) They shall appoint the minority of all committees.
- c) In the absence of the President, the Senior Vice President or the Financial Secretary-Treasurer, they shall sign or co-sign all checks and other documents.
- d) They shall be a delegate to the International Union Convention by virtue of office.

Section 5. Recording Secretary: They shall be compensated for all time spent on duties on behalf of the Union. They shall perform the following duties.

- a) They shall attend all meetings of the Executive Board and Membership and shall cause a faithful record to be made of the proceedings, resolutions, votes, and reports, which shall be provided within thirty (30) days to each Officer.
- b) They shall assist the President in carrying out the policies of UNITE HERE subject to the constitution and mandates of the Convention and the Executive Committee.
- c) They shall be a delegate to the International Union Convention by virtue of office

Section 6. Trustees: The Trustees shall supervise the property of the Local and shall submit an itemized inventory thereof each fiscal year. They shall audit the books of the Financial Secretary-Treasurer each month. They shall certify that the books of all officers desiring to resign are properly balanced and audited and that any of the Local's business which might have been entrusted to those officers has been properly completed and accepted by the Local before the resignation can be accepted. All books, papers, documents and money belonging to the Local Union which officers or members of the Local might have in their possession shall be made available to the Trustees for inspection at designated times.

Section 7. Executive Board: The Executive Board shall consist of the President, Senior Vice President, Financial Secretary-Treasurer, Vice President, Recording Secretary and three Trustees and seven Executive Board members. The Executive Board shall meet monthly and a majority of the Executive Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business. The Executive Board shall perform the following duties:

- a) Between regular meetings, the Executive Board shall be the governing body of the Union. It shall have complete authority between meetings of the Union as may be exercised by the union under the International Constitution, and these by-laws.
- b) All donations and expenditures, other than the routine operating expenses of the Union, shall first be referred to the Board for their approval.

Routine operating expenses include expendable supplies, cell phones, minor equipment (individual computers and ancillary devices, fax machines, low-volume copiers, phone units, bullhorns, adding machines, desktop organizers, etc.), repair and maintenance of buildings and equipment, expense reimbursement per policy and domestic and Canadian travel for normal Union business.

Examples of expenditures requiring Executive Board approval are real estate transactions, new construction and major remodeling, computer systems, high-volume copiers, telephone systems, furniture costing over $1,500, expense reimbursement policies, expense allowances, international travel other than Canada, domestic travel for special purposes, policies regarding the lending employees to other organizations, policies regarding the expenses of employees borrowed from other organizations.

the membership for final approval by a two-thirds majority of those members present.

d) All salaries, wages, compensation or expense allowances for officers, employees and delegates of the Union shall be recommended by the Executive Board and shall be subject to approval or ratification by majority vote of the membership present at a regular or special meeting.

Whenever this Local Union, a trust fund, corporation or other entity created directly or indirectly from funds derived from the Local Union or its members enters into a plan for the ownership, sale, encumbrance, remodeling or long term lease of real estate or uses any of its own or its members' funds for such purposes, the entire plan, including any trust agreements, articles of incorporation, corporate by-laws, contracts and leases, shall be subject to approval of the International President before becoming effective.

This Local Union or other such entity may not establish or participate in a plan to hold real estate which does not permit the International Union to audit fully the building funds in the same manner as the Local Union's assets are audited.

ARTICLE X

TRIALS AND APPEALS

Section 1. No member of this Local Union may be fined, suspended, expelled or otherwise disciplined, except for non-payment of dues, by this Local or any of its officers unless such member has been (a) served with written specific charges; (b) given a reasonable time to prepare his defense; and (c) afforded a full and fair hearing as set forth in this Article.

Section 2. A member or officer of this Local Union shall be subject to charges and to stand trial when charged with violating these by-laws or the International Constitution. The procedures and requirements of said charges, trials and appeals shall be as set forth in Article 16 of the International Constitution.

Section 3. The President and Vice President shall appoint a trial board of five from the membership to hear the charges and to render a decision. When the accused is found guilty, the penalty may be a fine for strikebreaking, suspension, expulsion, limitation to hold office or attend meetings, any combination of the foregoing or such other penalty as the determining authority may deem appropriate.

Section 4. The Financial Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the accused of the charges by sending him/her a copy thereof by registered mail or by delivering a copy of the charges to the accused personally. The accused shall be notified of the time, date and place of the trial and shall be allowed not less than ten days from the time of such notice for the preparation of a defense. Each side shall procure the attendance of its witnesses.

Section 5. Appeals from the trial board shall be governed by the International Constitution, Article XVI, §§12-20.

ARTICLE XI

FINANCES

Section 1. Dues, Fee and Assessments

- a) Dues are payable by the 10th of each month.
- b) Any member two calendar months in arrears for the payment of any dues, assessment or fines shall be considered automatically suspended from membership. The provisions of Article X of these bylaws shall not apply to such suspension.
- c) A member may be reinstated to membership in this Local Union by requesting to do so, paying any back dues, assessment or fines.
- d) Members who are retired or who are age 55 or more and are not working in the industry or for UNITE HERE or its affiliates may pay retirement dues. Retiree members may participate in union meetings and may receive union publications, but they shall not have the right to run for office or vote on any issue or in any election in Local 17. Retiree members are not in "good standing" for any purposes under these Bylaws. Should a retired member return to employment in the industry or for the Union, the member shall pay the full dues required by the union and comply with all other obligations of membership.

- e) Monthly dues of the members of this Local Union and dues increases shall be in compliance with the dues structure of the International Constitution unless waived by the President of the International Union.

All others $44.50

Retirement Dues 50% of monthly dues being paid at time of retirement.

Per Event Dues $3.00 per event worked.

ARTICLE XII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. All proposed amendments to these by-laws must be in writing, proposed by the Executive Board or signed by 300 members in good standing with the Local and read at two consecutive regular or special meetings and voted upon at the second meeting. After the first reading, the proposed amendment must be posted on the bulletin board until final action. A two-thirds majority vote of members present at the second meeting shall be required to adopt an amendment. No amendment shall become effective until approved by the International President.

Section 2. Rules of order or order of business may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the membership present. This provision shall not apply to the waiving of the reading and approval of the monthly or quarterly financial reports at any regular meeting.

ARTICLE XII

INTERNATIONAL CONSTITUTION

Section 1. The terms and provisions of the International Constitution and any amendments thereto shall be binding upon this Local Union, its officers and members, as is fully set forth herein.

Section 2. Any provisions of these by-laws which are in conflict with the International Constitution or state or federal law shall be of no force or effect.
