ARTICLE 9 SENIORITY

- 9.1 Definition.
- a) Seniority shall mean continuous length of service in the establishment from first day of work in the classifications covered by this Agreement after completing probation. Such classifications are set forth in Appendix B, incorporated herein. Such seniority shall be established by being regularly scheduled in a classification. Employees who work on an intermittent basis in another classification shall not build seniority in that classification.
- 9.2 Same Start Date. In the event two or more employees begin work on the same day, a numerical suffix will be attached to the seniority date of such employees based on the last four digits of the employee's social security number. The employee with the lowest four- digit number shall be deemed the most senior.
- 9.3 Probationary Period - New Employees. Any new employee shall be employed on a ninety (90) day trial or probationary basis, during which time they may be discharged without recourse. After the trial period, they shall be placed on the seniority list and their seniority shall then date from the first day of their current period of employment.
- 9.4 Probation Period - New Classification. An employee promoted to a higher classification shall serve twenty (20) working days probationary period. During the probationary period, the Employer may return the employee to their previously held classification and schedule, for inability to perform the duties of the new job, or the employee may elect to return to their previously held classification, room, and schedule if the position is not permanently filled; otherwise, the employee shall be given available work in that classification. Employees so returning to a previous classification shall suffer no loss of seniority.

9.5 Areas of Seniority. The Employer and Union agree to recognize seniority in the following areas:

- a) Employees shall be laid off and returned to work according to their length of service in their respective job classifications as set out in 9.6 below.
- b) Scheduling of vacation time.
- c) Offering of overtime work and requiring in reverse order.
- d) Employees may exercise their seniority to not work the holiday, if business permits with the junior employee(s) in the classification being required to work as needed. To be excused employees shall give the Employer two (2) weeks' notice prior to the holiday. Employees regularly scheduled to work the day on which the holiday is celebrated may not be bumped out of their shift.
- e) Scheduling of Work. The seniority of employees will be taken into consideration in scheduling employees for weekly schedules.

It is understood that employees shall not be permitted to establish their own work schedule, nor shall they be permitted to work overtime without the specific approval of their supervisors.

Nothing in the agreement shall be interpreted as a guarantee if a minimum number of hours or days of work.

- f) Promotion, demotion, or transfer to new job openings.
- g) Upon request in writing, any employee scheduled less than five (5) days per week may exercise their seniority for five (5) days of work per week when additional shifts become vacated on a regular basis, unless such shifts are eliminated. The employee must bid the five (5) day schedule as posted.

9.6 Layoffs and Recalls. During layoffs or reductions in the working force, the employee with the least seniority in the job classification affected shall be laid off first. When the working force is again increased, employees on layoff shall be recalled in the order of their job classification seniority, unless circumstances have occurred during the layoff which make them disqualified. Ability to perform the work available shall be a determining factor in following the principle that the last employee laid off will be the first employee rehired.

9.7 Bumping. Bumping shall not be permitted except in cases of layoff as described in 9.5 and 9.6. Bumping means complete layoff from work, not merely a reduction in hours.

9.8 Classification Seniority. Employees changing classifications shall begin their seniority for scheduling on day of entry into the new classification. During layoffs or reduction in the work force within a classification, an employee may exercise any accrued seniority in their prior classification to revert to the classification from which they were last transferred if qualified to handle all the duties of the prior classification.

- 9.9 Notice of Recall. Where an employee is notified at the time of layoff when they are to report back to work, they will promptly report at such time without further notice. When an employee is not notified at the time of layoff when they are to report back to work, they shall be given three (3) days' notice of when to report back to work if the period of layoff has been less than fourteen (14) days. If the layoff period extends for fourteen (14) days or more, the employee shall be given seven (7) days' notice of the time to report back to work. Notice to report back to work shall be given by a letter to the address furnished to the Employer by the employee. While waiting for an employee to report back to work, the Employer may utilize any other available person to perform the work.
- 9.10 Loss of Seniority. Seniority and job rights shall be terminated for the following reasons, as well as any other reasons established under the terms of this Agreement:
- a) Voluntary quitting.
 - b) Discharge for cause.
 - c) Failure to return to work after recall as provided.

 - g) Is absent for two (2) consecutive workdays without reporting to the Company an acceptable reason for the absence.
- 9.11 Job Posting. New job openings will be posted for a minimum of five (5) days, including the weekend and will be awarded to qualified applicants. If qualifications are equal, seniority shall prevail. The job opening may be filled from any source on a temporary basis during its vacancy.
- 9.12 Seniority List. The Employer shall furnish an accurate seniority list to the Union within ten (10) days of the date on which this Agreement is signed. Thereafter, the Employer shall notify the Union of each employee who has been separated from employment and such other monthly information on employees as has been provided.

ARTICLE 10

- 10.1 Grievance Procedure for Employees. Should differences arise concerning the Employer, the Union and/or any employee who has completed their probationary period, as to the meaning and application of this Agreement, the following procedure shall be followed by an employee and the Union.

Step 1. The employee may take up the matter with their supervisor on an informal basis in order to settle the matter promptly. An aggrieved employee may have the Union Steward Assist them with Step 1 if they so desire.

Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 1, the aggrieved employee or the Union shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date on which the incident which gave rise to the grievance occurred, file a written grievance with the General Manager; provided however, the fourteen (14) calendar day requirement and the written grievance requirement may be waived by mutual written agreement. Failure to file such written grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days shall result in such grievance being presumed to be without merit and it shall be barred from further consideration.

The written grievance shall set forth the facts giving rise to the grievance, including the date and persons involved, and designate the provisions of the Agreement which allegedly have been violated.

Step 3. The representative or representatives of the Employer will confer with the Union Steward and/or Union Business Agent within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such written grievance in an effort to settle the grievance unless the time limit is extended by mutual written agreement of the Parties. If not settled at this conference, the Employer shall issue a decision in writing on any such written grievance within seven (7) days from the time such grievance meeting is adjourned.

10.2 Effect of Failure to Appeal. Any grievance not appealed to a succeeding step within the time limits specified shall be deemed abandoned and not entitled to further consideration.

10.3 Arbitration Procedure. If the grievance cannot be satisfactorily settled by the above steps of the grievance procedure either of the Parties may request Arbitration by giving the other Party written notice of its desire to arbitrate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Employer or the Union has made its final written answer as provided in Step 3 (unless the Employer and the Union mutually agree in writing to extend the time limit), in which event the grievance shall be arbitrated according to the following procedure:

The Party desiring to arbitrate shall request and pay the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (with a copy of such request to the opposite Party) to furnish the Parties with a panel of seven (7) names of impartial arbitrators. From this panel a representative of the Employer and the Union shall select the Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall be selected by each Party striking in turn one strike at a time. The person remaining on the list after each Party has exercised their strikes shall become the Arbitrator. Either party may request a second list if the list supplied is not satisfactory; to a maximum of two (2) lists. The party requesting a list will pay the applicable fee to obtain it. The Parties may select an Arbitrator by other means if such other method of selection is confirmed by a written stipulation.

The selection of the Arbitrator and the hearing shall be within thirty (30) days of the request for Arbitration, whenever practicable.

The expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Employer, each Party bearing its own preparation and presentation expenses.

- 10.4. Final and Binding. Any decision reached at any stage of these grievance proceedings or by the Arbitration Procedure shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employees involved. The Employer, the Union and the aggrieved employee shall comply in all respects with the result of such decision reached. The Parties agree that such decision shall be enforceable in a court of law.
- 10.5. Arbitrator Limitations. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, ignore, or modify any of the terms, conditions, or sections of this Agreement. Their decision shall not go beyond what is necessary for the interpretation and application of this Agreement in the case of the specific grievance at issue. The Arbitrator shall not substitute their judgment for that of the Parties in the exercise of rights granted or retained by this Agreement.
- 10.6. Award of Arbitrator. Where an employee has been discharged in violation of this Agreement, the Arbitrator may order the employee reinstated, either with or without back pay for loss of income resulting from such discharge. An award of the Arbitrator shall not in any case be made retroactive to a date prior to the date on which the subject of the grievance occurred, and in no event more than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the filing of the grievance. The Arbitrator's written decision shall be issued within sixty (60) days of the hearing, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.
- 10.7. Contract Remedy. When an employee has any complaint, grievance, or difference regarding the application of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, it is agreed that the grievant will use the grievance/arbitration procedure, section 10.1 and 10.3-10.6 set forth above.

- 11.2. Written Notices. Written reprimands, notices of suspension and notices of discharge, which are to become part of the employee's file, shall be read and signed by the employee. Such signature shall in no way be an admittance of wrongdoing on the part of the employee. A copy of such reprimands and/or notices shall be given to the employee and the Union. Failure of an employee to sign and failure of the employee or the Union to obtain or retain a copy of the notice, shall not affect the validity of the notice in any way.
