However, an issue of fact as to whether or not any particular employee has engaged in, participated in, or encouraged any such violation may be subject to arbitration as provided in Article 12 hereof.

5.3. No Lockout. There shall be no lockout by the Employer.

 The Employer shall have the right to require a deposit from bartenders and servers hired after December 15, 1987 on uniforms furnished in an amount not to exceed the value of the uniform, which shall be returned to the employee when the uniform is returned to the Employer. Except for bartenders and servers such uniforms shall be laundered and maintained at no cost to the employees.

8.2. Meals Furnished. Meals shall be provided without charge or wage reduction to all employees in the classifications of employment so designated in the attached Schedule of Wages.

Such employees shall be given one meal for each shift, including one (1) meal for each one-half (1/2) of a split shift. The Employer may offer an "Employee Only" menu.

8.3. Meal Period. Meal periods shall be an uninterrupted one-half (1/2) hour for which the employee is not to be compensated. If employees are required to work any portion of the meal period, they shall receive the regular hourly rate for the entire meal period. No employee shall suffer a wage reduction or be imposed with added hours through the effect of this Agreement. Present meal periods shall not be increased in order to defeat the purpose of this section.

8.4. Employee's Belongings. The Employer agrees to provide an area for safekeeping of employee's personal belongings.

8.5. Regular Rate of Pay. It is agreed that any meals, uniforms, rooms and/or laundering and maintenance of uniforms furnished by the Employer to an employee shall not be considered as part of the employee's regular rate of pay for overtime and wage computation purposes, within the meaning of Wage and Hour Laws, and that an employee's regular rate of pay is that rate reflected in the Schedule of Wages.

ARTICLE 9 HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

9.1. Standard Workweek. The normal workweek shall consist of forty (40) hours. However, a forty (40) hour work week is not guaranteed and the Employer may schedule employees for less than forty (40) hours per week. The full regular work hour schedule as established by management shall be offered in accordance with established seniority, provided the senior employee is qualified to perform the work. Where practical, senior employees who are qualified shall be scheduled to receive the maximum number of available hours on the work schedule up to a forty (40) hour week. Senior employees may not claim part of a shift and may claim shifts only when they become available on a regular basis. Split shifts shall be considered separate shifts for scheduling purposes. It is understood that employees shall not be permitted to establish their own work schedules nor shall they be permitted to work overtime without the specific approval of their supervisor. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as a guarantee of a minimum number of hours or days of work.

9.2. Overtime Pay. All Kitchen Staff shall receive overtime pay at one and one-half (1½) their regular straight-time hourly rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day. All other employees shall receive overtime pay at one and one-half (1½) their regular straight-time hourly rate for all hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours per week.

9.3. Split Shifts. Split shifts shall be permitted only by mutual consent of the Employer and employee.

9.4. Work Schedules. Work schedules shall be posted by Wednesday in advance of the first day of the schedule.

9.5. Report-in Pay. An employee called in and reporting for work as scheduled without prior notice received by the employee not to so report shall receive a minimum of three (3) hours of work or pay in lieu thereof for the lunch shift and/or four (4) hours of work or pay in lieu thereof for the dinner shift. This provision shall not apply if the employee requests to leave work before working the specified or agreed to scheduled hours.

a) No employee shall be entitled to report-in pay or other pay if the lack of work is due to any strike, work stoppage, labor dispute, or to a fire, flood, act of God, or other such condition which is beyond the control of the Employer.

9.6. Replacements. Employees shall not be required to provide a replacement for themselves when ill.

9.7. Days Off. No employee shall be required to report in on their days off except by mutual agreement of the Employer and employee with the exception of specified mandatory meetings not to exceed four (4) in a calendar year and posted in advance in accordance with Article 9, Section 4.

9.8. Discontinuance of Business or Lay-Off. In the event it becomes necessary to close down or otherwise discontinue business or any part of the business, or lay-off employees on a temporary or permanent basis, the Employer shall give a minimum of one (1) week notice to the affected employee, except that this shall not apply if such action of the Employer is due to an Act of God or a condition beyond the control or pre-knowledge of Employer. If the Employer shall fail to give the affected employee the minimum of one (1) week notice and no suitable alternate employment is provided, said employee shall receive one week's pay, or in case of lay-off, three (3) day's pay, in lieu thereof for all hours lost. Temporary, as used in this section, shall mean more than one (1) week.

ARTICLE 10 SENIORITY

10.1. Definition. Seniority for full time employees shall mean continuous length of service with the Employer from the first day of work in the classifications covered by this Agreement.

10.2. Full Time Employees: Regular Full-time employees are employees who have completed their probationary period and are available to work a minimum of eight (8) shifts a week.

10.3. On-call Employees. Defined as those who are not available for Full Time status. On-call employees are scheduled after all Full Time employees and may or may not have regularly scheduled days or shifts and will be schedule according to business needs. On-call employees shall qualify for wage, meal, and uniform benefits only. On-calls wishing to become Full Time shall have the first opportunity as openings occur. A separate list of on-calls shall be kept, but those with more availability shall have priority in scheduling.

10.4. Same Start Date. In the event two (2) or more employees begin work on the same day, a numerical suffix will be attached to the seniority data of such employees based on the last four digits of the employee's social security number. The employee with the lowest four digit number shall be deemed the most senior.

10.5. Probationary Period - New Employees. Any new employee shall be employed on a sixty (60) calendar day trial or probationary basis, during which time she/he may be discharged without recourse; provided, however, that this probationary period will be automatically extended an additional thirty (30) days after written notice to the Union and the employee of such extension and the reason therefore. After the trial period, the employee shall be placed on the seniority list and her/his seniority shall then date from the first day of her/his current period of employment.

10.6. Probationary Period - Change Classification. An employee who moves to a new classification shall serve a thirty (30) working day probationary period. During the probationary period, the Employer may return the employee to their previously held classification, room and schedule for inability to perform the duties of the new job, or the employee may elect to return to their previously held classification, room and schedule. Employees so returning to previous work shall suffer no loss of seniority.

10.7. Uses of Seniority. The Employer and the Union agree to recognize seniority in the following areas; however, ability to perform the required work shall be the determining factor.

- a) Lay-off and recall according to employee's length of service of their respective job classification;
- b) Scheduling vacations;
- c) Offering and/or requiring overtime, except that servers will be allowed to complete guest service in their respective station;
- d) Filling job openings;
- e) Preference of holidays; provided employees regularly scheduled to work the day on which a holiday falls may not be involuntarily bumped out of their shift;
- f) Scheduling of the workweek and shifts;
- g) Promotion or transfer to different classification job opening using overall house seniority.

10.8. Full Work Week. Upon request, any employee scheduled less than five (5) days per week may exercise their seniority for additional days of work when additional shifts become vacated. The full regular work hour schedule shall be offered in accordance with their established seniority.

10.9. No Reduction in Hours. Employees' hours shall not be involuntarily reduced in order to create new or additional shifts. Employees' hours may only be involuntarily reduced on the basis of seniority due to lack of business.

10.10. Scheduling to Avoid Health Contributions. The Employer shall not hire or schedule employees in order to avoid paying the maximum Health and Welfare Contribution.

10.11. Lay-offs and Recalls. During lay-offs or reductions in hours, the employee with the least seniority in the job classification affected shall be laid off or have reduced hours first. When the working force is again increased, employees on lay-off or reduced hours shall be recalled in the order of their job classification seniority, unless circumstances have occurred during the lay-off which make them disqualified. Ability to perform the work available shall be a determining factor in following the principle that the last employee laid off will be the first employee rehired.

10.12. Notice of Recall. When employees are notified at the time of lay-off when they are to report back to work, they will promptly report at such time without further notice. When employees are laid off less than fourteen (14) days and are not notified at the time of lay-off when to report back to work, they shall be given three (3) days notice of when to report back to work. If the lay-off period extends fourteen (14) days or more, the employee shall be given seven (7) days notice of the time to report back to work. Notice of report back to work shall be given by a certified letter to the address furnished to the Employer by the employee. While waiting for an employee to report back to work, the Employer may utilize any other available person to perform the work.

10.13. Bumping. Bumping shall not be permitted except in cases of lay off or reduced hours.

10.14. Classification Seniority. Employees changing classification shall begin their seniority for scheduling on the day of entry into the new classification. During lay offs or reductions in hours within a classification, employees may exercise any accrued seniority in their prior classification to revert to the classification from which they were last transferred.

10.15. Loss of Seniority. The term "continuous service", wherever used in this Agreement, is the period of time that begins with the employee's most recent date of hire. If such service is broken by any of the reasons listed below, continuous service shall commence with the employee's most recent hiring date. An employee's seniority shall be broken if she/he:

- a) Voluntarily quits; or
- b) Is discharged for just cause; or
- c) Has been laid off for a period of one (1) year; or
- d) Fails to return from an approved leave of absence; or
- e) Takes a leave of absence to accept gainful employment elsewhere; or
- f) Is absent for two (2) consecutive work days without reporting to the Company the reasons for the absence; or
- g) Is absent beyond the leave of absence period granted due to an illness or disability except in case of injury on the job for which workers' compensation benefits are being paid.
- h) Terminates employment from the regular schedule and works on an intermittent call-basis only.

10.16. Job Posting. The Employer agrees to post all job openings. Any employee may apply for a job opening, but employees working within the classification with the opening will be offered the position before employees from other classifications.

10.17. Seniority List. The Employer shall furnish an accurate seniority list to the Union within ten (10) days of the date such request is made by the Union. A seniority list will be posted by the time clock and updated quarterly.

ARTICLE 11

GUEST SEATING

11.1. Guest Seating. All guest parties shall be seated in a rotation order so as to ensure a fair distribution of the workload, consistent with guest preference and table availability. A violation of this section shall not be grievable until the Union has sent a warning letter to the Employer citing several instances of abuse of this section, reciting the date, time and circumstances of such abuse. If, after the warning letter, such abuses continue, the Union may invoke the grievance and arbitration procedures to correct the problem.

ARTICLE 12

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

12.1. Grievance Procedure. If any difference of opinion or dispute arises between the parties to this contract concerning the performance of an obligation under the terms and provisions of this Agreement, an attempt will be made to resolve it under the following grievance procedure:

- a) Step 1. The aggrieved employee shall first discuss the dispute with her/his immediate supervisor.

- b) Step 2. If no satisfactory resolution to the grievance is reached in Step 1, the Union shall, within fourteen (14) days of the employee's knowledge of the facts giving rise to the grievance, file a written grievance with the authorized representative of the Employer. The written grievance shall indicate the contract provision(s) violated and the name of the employee(s). Either party may request a meeting at the time of or subsequent to the filing of the written grievance, but the meeting shall take place within ten (10) days of the filing of the written grievance.

- c) Step 3. If the grievance is not settled pursuant to Step 2 above, the Employer shall issue a decision in writing within fourteen (14) days from the time of the filing of the written grievance.

- d) Step 4. If the grievance is not resolved under Step 3 above, the Union or the Employer may request that such grievance be submitted to a joint grievance committee consisting of 3 representatives designated by the Employer plus 1 alternate, and 3 representatives designated by the Union plus 1 alternate. Either party may reject the request and proceed immediately to arbitration under Article 13. If Step 4 herein is utilized by the parties, the matter will be heard by the joint grievance committee within ten (10) days following receipt of the request, unless an extension of such time limit is mutually agreed to between the parties and confirmed in writing. The decision of the joint grievance committee shall be binding on both parties. Either party shall be free to proceed with arbitration under Article 12 in the event of a deadlock vote by the committee.

12.2. Working Conditions While Processing Grievance. During the processing of any grievance through the Grievance Procedure, the employees concerned unless suspended or discharged by the Company, will continue to work under the conditions which gave rise to the grievance.

12.3. Time Limits. Any grievance not appealed to the succeeding step within the time limits specified in this Article shall be deemed abandoned and not entitled to consideration. Such abandonment by the Employer shall be deemed an acceptance of the grievance as stated and the remedy requested shall be accepted and enforced. The time limits of the Grievance Procedure can be mutually extended, in writing, by the parties.

12.4. Employer/Union Grievances. It is agreed and understood that either the Employer or the Union may file grievances under this Article beginning with Step 2 above and proceeding through arbitration. The time limits contained in this Article 12 and Article 13 shall be applicable.

ARTICLE 13 ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

13.1. Request for Arbitration Time Limits. A grievance will be subject to arbitration only if it is processed through the grievance procedure as outlined herein. Request for arbitration must be in writing, and must be submitted to the other party within fourteen (14) days from the date of the Employer's written decision in Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure.

13.2. Selection of Arbitrator. The parties will select an Arbitrator according to the following procedures:

a) Selection. If the Company and the Union are unable to promptly agree upon an Impartial Arbitrator, the parties shall request a list of seven (7) Arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). The Impartial Arbitrator will then be selected by the parties alternately striking off names from the list until one (1) remains. The selection of the Arbitrator shall be made within fifteen (15) days after the receipt of the list of Arbitrators.

b) Final and Binding Decision. The decision of the Arbitrator will be in writing and will be final and binding on the Company, the Union and the employee.

c) Expenses. Each party shall pay its own expenses incurred in arbitration, including fees and expenses of the Arbitrator which will be borne equally by the Company and the Union.

d) Time Limits. In the case of a grievance involving loss of time or wages, the Arbitrator or the Arbitration Board may order reinstatement and/or back wages in an amount not to exceed the amount actually lost by the aggrieved party, less income gained from other employment. Wages within the meaning of this Article shall mean all income lost by the employee due to the violation of the Agreement.

e) Limitation of Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, ignore, or modify any of the terms, conditions or sections of this Agreement. Her/his decision shall not go beyond what is necessary for the interpretation and application of this Agreement in the case of the specific grievance at issue. The Arbitrator shall not substitute her/his judgment for that of the parties in the exercise of rights granted or retained by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 14
DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

14.1. Discipline and Discharge. The Employer will discipline employees for just cause only. Discipline will normally be in the following form:

- a) Verbal warning;
- b) Written warning;
- c) Suspension;
- d) Discharge

Provided, however, in the case of dishonesty, drunkenness on duty or an equally serious violation of the Employer's rules the preceding progressive discipline need not apply.

14.2. Written Notices. Written reprimands, notices of suspension and notices of discharge, which are to become part of the employee's file, shall be read and offered for signature by the employee. If signed, such signatures shall in no way be an admission of wrongdoing on the part of the employee. Written warnings MUST BE SIGNED to acknowledge that warning was received by employee. A copy of such reprimands and/or notices shall be given to the employee and the Union.

14.3. Suspension and Discharge. All suspensions and discharge will be in written form and copies will be mailed/faxed/mailed to the Union immediately upon issuance of such notices. Discharges will be preceded by a suspension during which an investigation of the incident leading to the discharge will be conducted.

14.4. Warning Notices - Cancellation - Warning notices shall not be used as a basis for discipline after a period of fifteen (15) months provided there have been no other written notices of a similar nature.

14.5. Disciplinary Meetings. In the event a meeting is held for disciplinary purposes, the affected employee shall have the right to have a Union steward and/or Union Representative present.

14.6. Right of Review. The Union shall have the right of review of any discharge of an employee who has completed the probationary period by following the grievance procedure of this Agreement.

14.7. Posting of Rules. All rules shall be conspicuously posted by time clocks or on employee bulletin boards. The Employer's rules shall not conflict with this Agreement.

ARTICLE 15
LEAVES OF ABSENCE

15.1. Leaves for Personal Reasons. The Employer may grant an employee a leave of absence without pay for good and sufficient cause. All such leaves beyond one week, if granted, shall be in writing and copies shall be mailed to the Union. Seniority will not accrue during personal leaves.

15.2. Leaves for Injury and Sickness. Any regular payroll employee who becomes ill and presents satisfactory proof of such illness to the Employer, shall be granted sick leave automatically for a period of up to six (6) months. Such sick leave shall be extended for an additional six (6) months upon medical verification by a doctor's statement presented to the Employer. The Employer may, at his or her expense, request and provide for a medical examination of the employee to determine if such sick leave is warranted. Employees who are out sick more than 8 days in a year without medical documentation will have each additional day deducted against vacation pay.

In the case of compensable (Worker's Compensation) injury or illness, a leave of absence will be granted automatically for the full period of temporary disability. Such automatic leave of absence will be terminated automatically when the employee is capable of returning to work. Seniority will continue to accrue during all approved leaves.

a) Return Reinstatement Time. The employee shall notify the Employer when she/he is ready to return to work after the period of absence and the Employer will have up to fourteen (14) days after such notification in which to reinstate the employee.

15.3. Pregnancy/Child Birth Related Disability. A pregnant employee may continue to work after the pregnancy begins for such time as the pregnancy does not interfere with her capacity to perform fully all of the duties of her job. The Employer may require such pregnant employee to furnish a written statement from her physician stating how long during the period of pregnancy she may be allowed to work without endangering her health or that of the unborn child. Pregnancy or child birth related disability shall be treated the same as any other injury, sickness or disability pursuant to Section 15.2 of this Article. Seniority will continue to accrue during all approved leaves.

15.4. Military Leave. A regular employee who enters the Armed Forces of the United States shall have the right to reinstatement to his/her former position as may be required by law.

15.5. Child Care Leave. An employee shall be granted an unpaid child care leave of absence of up to three (3) months in connection with the birth or adoption of her/his child. The employee shall notify the Employer of such intent three (3) months prior to the leave. Leave of absence time will not be credited for vacation purposes. Seniority will continue to accrue during such leave. Upon return from leave, the employee will be returned to her/his former job, but will not be guaranteed return to the same shift if it is no longer available.

15.6. Family and Medical Leave. Eligible employees may be entitled to up to twelve (12) unpaid work weeks of leave during any twelve (12) month period under the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA). Family and Medical Leave shall not be in addition to other leave time off under this Agreement. Employees must apply, provide all required documentation and qualify in order to receive Family and Medical Leave. Eligible employees shall have their health benefits continued for the duration of their Family and Medical Leave under the conditions coverage which would have been provided if they had continued employment during this period. If an employee fails to return from their Family and Medical Leave, except for a continuation, reoccurrence or onset of a serious health condition, or something else beyond the employee's control, the Employer may recover all of the health care coverage premiums paid during the Leave.

15.7. Return from Leave. Employees returning from an authorized leave of absence, as designated in this Article, shall return to their previously held job classification and schedule (hours, days and room), provided the job has not been abolished and the employee remains qualified. In the event the schedule has been abolished and cannot be reestablished, employees may bump into any schedule commensurate with their accrued seniority.

15.8. Coordination with Applicable Laws - The parties to this Agreement agree that the provisions of this entire Article shall be administered so as not to conflict with applicable federal or state laws governing leaves of absence. Where applicable, leaves of absence granted under this Article may run concurrently with any applicable leave rights the employee may have under the Family and Medical Leave Act. Where the provisions of this Agreement are more favorable to the employee than those provided under law, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

ARTICLE 16 JURY DUTY PAY

16.1. Jury Duty. All regular employees who shall be required to serve on any municipal, county, or federal jury (not grand jury) shall be given a leave of absence for the period during which they are required to serve on any such jury. During the period of such jury duty, employees shall be paid the difference between their jury pay and the amount they would otherwise have earned during straight time hours of available employment at their regular straight time hourly rate of pay, subject to the following conditions:

a) Available for Work. Employees must be available for work on their regular work day immediately preceding and the regular work day immediately following the period of jury duty.

b) Notice to the Employer. Employees must notify their designated supervisor prior to the commencement of jury service and, if the period of service is for longer than one week, they shall be required to report by telephone to their supervisor at the end of each week of jury duty.

c) Jury Service of Half-Day. In the event that time required for jury duty on any regularly scheduled work day during the period of jury service is a half-day or less, and the employee is excused from further jury service on that day, the employee must immediately make themselves available for work for the balance of said day, unless specifically excused by their supervisor.

d) Evidence of Jury Duty Pay. After completing the period of jury service, employees will be required to submit evidence of the amount of their jury duty pay. Pay adjustments will then be authorized according to this stated policy.

e) Jury Duty Expenses. Allowance for travel time or other expense allowance given employees in connection with jury service shall not be considered jury duty pay in determining wages due employees on the basis of the foregoing.

ARTICLE 17
FUNERAL PAY

17.1. Funeral Pay. Employees shall automatically be given a leave of absence to attend burial services and assist in making funeral arrangements in the event of death in their immediate family, and they shall be paid wages for time actually lost due to such absence according to the following conditions, limitations and eligibility:

- a) Probationary Period Completed. Employees must have completed their probationary period of employment in order to qualify for funeral pay.
