ARTICLE 7 SENIORITY

Section 1 – It is agreed that the Employer does recognize seniority rights of employees in their respective classifications as to tenure of employment and recall provided, however, that such employees in the opinion of the Company are fully capable of doing the work available.

Section 2 –

a) Seniority for all classifications shall mean the total number of events worked and shall be accumulated from season to season.

b) Seniority for Commissioned Retail Department –

1. There shall be four (4) seniority lists for the department consisting of:

A) All Commissioned Vendors:

Stand Leads, Stand Assistants, Publications

B) Retail Warehouse Workers

2. Seniority for Commissioned retail workers shall accumulate from season to season provided the employee works at least seventy-five (75%) of all Twins Games which he/she was given the opportunity to work during the previous calendar year. Weekend commissioned retail workers shall not be required to slot in as program/publication vendors for maintenance of their seniority percentages. However, program/publication events worked shall count toward seniority ranking. Program Vendors will need to work at least fifty percent (50%) of Twins games in order to accumulate seniority from season to season.

3. Seniority for Retail Warehouse Workers shall be the total number of days actually worked since their date of hire in the Department.

4. All Commissioned Retail Workers shall be allowed up to six (6) excused absences per season without loss of seniority.

5. Seniority for Food and Beverage Vendors

There shall be two (2) lists for Food and Beverage Vendors consisting of Vendors classified as Tier 1 Vendors or Tier 2 Vendors.

Tier 1 Vendors

Tier 1 Vendors shall be those who worked as Vendors at the Metrodome prior to 2010 and started at Target Field as Vendors in April, 2010 and who have, as of the date of this contract, not missed more than six (6) major league baseball games in any one season at Target Field (with exceptions of games missed for medical, workman's comp, and shared vendor policy with Target Center).

Tier 1 Vendors maintain their current seniority position relative to other Tier 1 Vendors as long as they remain in Tier 1.

Tier 1 Vendors may miss up to 7 major league baseball games that they are scheduled for per ranking period without losing Tier 1 status (with exceptions of games missed for leaves of absence, medical leaves, workman's comp, and company offered work waiver or shared vendor policy with Target Center). Vendors may miss an additional two (2) in accordance with 2018 agreement.

Upon missing more than 7 (or 9 in accordance with the 2018 policy), major league baseball games that they are scheduled for in a given ranking period (with the exceptions noted above), a Tier 1 Vendor will lose their Tier 1 status and be placed in ranked order in Tier 2 based upon the total number of major league baseball games they have worked at Target Field, and will be subject to all Tier 2 policies.  The loss of Tier 1 status will occur at the beginning of the next ranking period.

Once a Tier 1 Vendor loses Tier 1 status, they will remain in Tier 2 and cannot regain Tier 1 status.

Tier 2 Vendors

Tier 2 Vendors are all other vendors that do not meet all of the definitions of Tier 1 Vendors as described above.

Tier 2 Vendors are ranked purely by the total number of total major league baseball games worked as a Vendor at Target Field.

Tier 2 Vendors who have the same total number of major league baseball games worked at Target Field (and therefore are tied in event count) will have their order determined first by their previous relative ranking order to each other (the vendor who was ranked higher in the previous ranking period will remain ahead of the vendor who has now tied them). All other ties shall be broken by the last four digits of their social security numbers, lowest to highest.

6. For purposes of calculating the above maintenance of seniority, any employee who has been granted a leave of absence is not considered available or scheduled to work during his/her leave of absence.
7. Seniority lists shall be updated two (2) times each year, on March 1st and the Baseball All-Star break and posted outside the merchandise warehouse.

Section 3 – Probationary Period.

- a) Any new employee, except distribution workers, shall be employed on a twenty (20) event trial or probationary basis during which time he/she may be discharged without recourse. After the trial period, he/she shall be placed on the seniority list and his/her seniority shall then date from the first day of her/his current period of employment.

b) Any new distribution worker shall be employed for a twenty-five (25) working day (not calendar day), probationary basis during which time he/she may be discharged without recourse. After the trial period, he/she shall be placed on the seniority list and his/her seniority shall then date from the first day of his/her current period of employment.

Section 4 – Areas of Seniority. It is hereby agreed by the Employer and the Union that the Employer shall and hereby does recognize seniority in all respects in the following fields:

The employees shall be promoted or demoted (within bargaining unit positions), laid off and returned to service, scheduled for overtime work, holidays, and shifts according to their seniority ranking; providing, that the employees are qualified to do the work

Section 5 – Scheduling of Stand Attendant. The Company will place the top five (5) senior Concession Stand Workers (according to the then current seniority list) in each classification (Cook, Stand Attendant, Utility, and Concession Bar) into stands based upon their preference as indicated on their monthly calendar and prior to assigning any stand to NPOs.

For Stand Leads who have completed their probationary period and who are present at reporting time, the Company will place these employees into stands based upon their preference as indicated on the Stand Assignment Sheets and prior to assigning any stand to NPOs.

*Employees may change their stand preference order once each calendar quarter.

a) The seniority of the vendors shall be that seniority ranking system mutually agreed upon by the parties.

b) Vendors Scheduling. It is understood by all parties that the Employer currently has a system of scheduling vendors by their seniority ranking which ranks them according to frequency of attendance of ticketed events. Such seniority will be review in the beginning of the season. Vendor scheduling rules and regulations shall be posted on the vending bulletin board and made available to all vendors.

Section 6 - Scheduling Confirmation and Call In. Any employee who does not wish to work a particular event shall inform his/her supervisor at least three (3) days prior to the scheduled report time for the event that he/she does not wish to work. Any employee who gives such notice to his/her supervisor will be placed on the bottom of the seniority list for the event. Except in cases of emergency as defined in the Attendance policy, any employee who is unable to report at the time he/she is scheduled to work shall inform his/her supervisor at least four (4) hours prior to the scheduled report time.

Section 7 – Permanent Transfer to a New Classification.

a) Notification of Openings. If vacancies occur in classifications covered by this Agreement the Employer shall notify all employees of these vacancies by posting vacancies on a visible employee bulletin board for a period of at least four (4) event days or one (1) calendar week, whichever is less.

b) Factors of Consideration. In the event that more employees apply for the vacancies than there are openings the Employer will take into consideration both seniority and ability in determining which employee shall be awarded the positions. In considering the factor of ability, the capabilities to satisfactorily perform the job in question shall normally be qualifying. When it is determined that several candidates have qualifying abilities to perform the job, the position shall be awarded to the qualified bidder with the highest seniority number (total number of events worked for concessions, vending, and Suite employees, or total number of days worked for distribution employees). In the case of an opening in the classification of Concession Stand Lead, however, current Concession Stand Attendants will be given first consideration for the position before workers from other classifications or new hires.

c) Seniority Ranking After Transfer. Employees who permanently transfer to a new classification shall be placed on the bottom of the seniority list of their new classification, starting with a seniority number of zero (0) events or days worked. The only exception to this rule will be in the case of Concession Stand Workers who change to Concession Stand Leads, or vice versa. Concession Stand Attendants and Leads will be ranked on the same seniority list and a switch from Attendant to Lead, or from manager to worker, shall not affect the employee's seniority number.

Section 8 – Commissioned Classification (Vending). The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be two (2) separate commissioned classifications, with separate seniority lists. One classification shall be Food and Beverage Vendors, and the other shall be-Commissioned Retail Workers. Food and Beverage Vendors will receive first priority for vending food and beverages at all events. Commissioned Retail Workers will have first priority selling novelties and publications at all events that DNC is hired for retail.

Section 9 – It is agreed that Minnesota Sportservice will schedule all union workers, as defined under Article 1, for any events, shifts, holidays and scheduled overtime work before any non—union workers are scheduled, provided they have signed up and have verified by the verification date posted. Non-union workers are to include, but not limited to, any temporary workers or members from any nonprofit organization.

a) Available work will be offered first to the most senior employee in the classification. The Company shall offer any additional work to employees in other classifications who have indicated in writing their desire to work, and are qualified as determined by management in another classification prior to the Company using temporary employees. Hourly employees (not vendors) whose profile is maintained at the Target Field will be provided work opportunities before employees whose profile is maintained elsewhere.

b) Scheduled overtime will be offered to the most senior employee(s) in the classification when other employees in the classification are unavailable at the straight time hourly rate. Unscheduled overtime shall be at the Employer's discretion with regard to operational needs. Hourly employees (not vendors) whose profile is maintained at the Target Field will be provided overtime opportunities before employees whose profile is maintained elsewhere.

Section 10 – Time lost due to a worker's compensation injury or other work-related illness or injury shall not affect seniority. Credit for events missed (for which the employee would have been eligible to work if not on leave) shall be determined by a pro-rated percentage based on the employee's attendance during the 365 days preceding the illness or injury.

ARTICLE 8 COMMISSIONED RETAIL WORKERS

Section 1 – Definitions:

- c) Overages/Shortages.
 - 1. Overages and shortages are calculated on a daily basis. Daily averages and shortages are netted against each other until the end of the pay period. At the end of the pay period, Merchandise Vendors are paid through payroll Merchandise workers who have net shortages in excess of their earnings in the final payroll period of the baseball season must repay said shortages to the Company within twenty-four (24) hours after they receive notification of such shortage. Failure to do so may result in termination.

2. Commissioned Retail Worker shall not be responsible for merchandise lost due to theft when the vendor is not at work, provided the incident is reported to management immediately after the beginning inventory has been taken and prior to any sales being made.

d) Carryover of Inventory Counts. Opening inventory figures are carried forward from the previous games ending inventory count. Opening inventory figures don't change unless different Commissioned Retail Workers are working a stand/cart. Any beginning inventory changes must be reported and verified by a supervisor. The previous game's ending inventory is then changed, and commissions are adjusted accordingly.

e) Employer's Right to Inventory Merchandise: The Employer reserves the right to conduct inventory reviews at its discretion in the presence of the lead novelty vendor and must verify all ending counts at each stand/cart with the lead Commissioned Retail Worker of that stand/cart.

Section 3 – Selection of -Commissioned Retail Worker Positions and Sales Locations.

a) At the beginning of each season, the Employer shall list the locations to be used for the sale of merchandise, the approximate number of games each location may be utilized in the coming season and the number of Publication Vendor positions available for the coming season. Selections of positions and sales locations for Lead and Assistant Commissioned Retail Workers shall be made at the beginning of each season in order of seniority by department vendors. After all the Lead and Assistant Commissioned Retail Worker positions are filled, all remaining Commissioned Retail Worker will slot into the Publication Vendor list in order of seniority and may sell publications when they are not scheduled to work selling merchandise. For each event, the Employer will determine which sales locations require one or two positions and will schedule assistant Commissioned Retail Workers according to the seniority provisions of this Agreement.

b) In case of ties in seniority, the tiebreaker shall be based on events worked.

c) 1. In the event a new novelty sales location(s) is created during the season, and this new location will be used on a regular basis for the remainder of the season, including post season, the new location, and Lead and Assistant positions shall be offered first to all Commissioned Retail Workers, including Publication Vendors, in order of seniority; second to Retail store workers in order of seniority; and third to hourly classification employees in order of seniority.

2. In the event a temporary merchandise sales location is created during the season, including post season, the new location shall be offered first to Commissioned Retail Workers in order of seniority, second to Publication

Vendors in order of seniority, third to Retail store workers in order of seniority and fourth to hourly classification employees in order of seniority.

Temporary, as used above, shall be defined as a stand or location that is anticipated to be open for less than seven (7) regular season events or that is anticipated to be open only for post season events.

d) For the purpose of temporary substitution, as described in all sections to this Article, Food and Beverage Vendors and hourly classification employees who wish to be considered for merchandise department work must sign up in either February or during the All Star break in conjunction with the seniority list update.

Section 4 – Scheduling of Publication Vendors.

a) Sign Up.

- 1) A sign-up sheet for each homestand shall be posted no later than one (1) homestand in advance. The sign-up sheet for each game shall state the minimum number of Publication Vendors needed, publication sales locations to be used, projected attendance and reporting times.
- 2) Employees may sign up to work future games through the last day of the current homestand. Publication Vendors shall be scheduled to work a game according to seniority. Employees may call the office to verify their schedule. If a publication Vendor calls in sick or is unable to work after signing up, the Employer shall call in to work the next Publication Vendor in order of seniority who signed up on the sign up sheet designating their availability to work until the full complement of Publication Vendors needed is reached.
- 3) If there are more Publication Vendors needed in addition to those who signed up to work, this work shall be offered first to Food and Beverage Vendors in order of seniority and second to hourly classification employees in order of seniority who indicated their interest on a stand-by list.

b) Selection of Publication Sales Locations - Publication Vendors shall select sales locations daily in order of seniority. Publication Vendors who report after their scheduled reporting time and after the sales location selection has begun shall select from the remaining publication sales locations.

c) Additional Positions - In the event additional Publication Vendor positions, temporary or permanent, are created before or during the season, including the post—season, the new positions shall be offered first to Food and Beverage Vendors in order of seniority and second to hourly classification employees in order of seniority.
