WITNESSETH:

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants expressly stated herein, the Employer and the Union agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1
INTENT AND PURPOSE

1.1 Purpose. The purpose of this Agreement shall be to achieve mutual understanding, harmony and cooperation among the Union, the Employer and its employees; to assure the effective, efficient and economical operation of the Employer; to secure and sustain maximum work effort of each employee covered by this Agreement; to prevent strikes; to provide sound working conditions for the employees; to secure a prompt and fair disposition of grievances; to eliminate all interruptions of work and the interference with the efficient operation of the Employer's Hotel; to obtain maximum efficiency in the Hotel; to assure excellent customer relations and service; and to set forth the Agreement covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed by the Parties during the life of this Agreement.

1.2 Respect and Dignity. Local 17 and the Employer recognize that the workers in the hospitality industry are professional employees deserving of the highest regard. The Union, the Employer, the non-union and union employees will work together to honor the principles of respect and dignity. The parties agree that the continued success and operation of this establishment is dependent upon their mutual respect for one another’s work.

RECOGNITION AND COVERAGE

2.1 Union Recognition and No Individual Agreements. The Employer recognizes the Union as the duly certified bargaining agent of those employees covered by this Agreement. The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreements or contracts with its bargaining unit employees, individually or collectively, which conflict with the terms and provisions of this Agreement, except as expressly agreed to in the form of a written addendum.

2.2 Coverage. For the purpose of this Agreement, the term “employees” shall cover all regular full-time and regular part time employees employed by the employer in the facility located at 45 South Eighth Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota who are employed in the Housekeeping Department; including laundry attendants, room cleaners, trainer attendants, public space cleaners, night cleaners and public space/breakfast bar attendants; but excluding all office clerical employees, front desk personnel, professional employees, concierge, guards, confidential employees, managers and supervisors as defined in the National Labor Relations Act, as amended.

2.3 Non Unit Employees. Individuals outside of the bargaining unit, such as managerial, professional or supervisory employees, may assist in the performance of bargaining unit work as necessary as determined by Employer, but in no case will they be scheduled in place of bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 3
COMPLETE AGREEMENT

3.1 Complete Agreement. The express provisions of this Agreement constitute the complete collective bargaining contract which shall prevail between the Employer and the Union with respect to wages, hours of work, and other conditions of employment. This Agreement can be added to, detracted from, altered, amended or modified only by a written document signed on behalf of the Parties by their duly authorized agents and representatives.

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations resulting in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any and all subjects or matters not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Company and the Union each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right and agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation by either or both of the parties at the time that they negotiated or signed this Agreement. All rights and duties of both parties are specifically expressed in this Agreement and such expression is all-inclusive. This does not apply to written policies the Company has presently in effect and not in conflict with the collective bargaining Agreement.

3.2 Most Favored Nations. The Union agrees that if after the date of ratification of this Agreement, it enters into a renewal agreement with any other hotel employer in the City of Minneapolis and surrounding area, excluding St. Paul, who operates the same type of establishment as an Employer-Party to this Agreement, and if the Employer-Party to this Agreement believes that said renewal agreement is more favorable in its provisions than the provisions of this Agreement, then the Employer-Party to this Agreement shall be entitled to have the full provisions of said renewal agreement in its entirety upon providing written notice to the Union that said Employer-Party to this Agreement wishes to exercise this option. The Union agrees to notify the Employer's representative of any negotiated renewal agreements and furnish copies thereof upon request.

ARTICLE 4

NO STRIKE – NO LOCKOUT

4.2 Unauthorized Action. In the event any violation of the previous paragraph occurs which is unauthorized by the Union, the Employer agrees that there shall be no liability on the part of the International or Local Union or any of their officers or agents, provided that in the event of such unauthorized action the Union first meets the following conditions:

   a) The Union shall declare publicly that such action is unauthorized by the Union if requested to do so by the Employer.

   b) The Union shall promptly order its members to return to work, notwithstanding the existence of a picket line, if requested to do so by the Employer.

   c) The Union shall not question the unqualified right of the Employer to discipline or discharge employees engaging in, participating in, or encouraging such action. It is understood that such action on the part of the Employer shall be final and binding upon the Union and its members, and shall in no case be construed as a violation by the Employer of any provision of this Agreement. However, an issue of fact as to whether or not any particular employee has engaged in, participated in, or encouraged any such violation may be subject to arbitration. Only the fact as to whether or not an employee engaged in a violation of this Article may be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement, and the Arbitrator shall have no authority to alter the discipline issued by the Employer.

4.3 Jurisdictional Dispute. It is agreed that any jurisdictional dispute between any union or unions involved with this Agreement shall not result in or interfere with the business of the Employer in any manner.

Step 3  The representative or representatives of the Employer will confer with the Union Steward and/or Union Business Agent within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of such written grievance in an effort to settle the grievance, unless the time limit is extended by mutual written agreement of the Parties. If not settled at this conference, the Employer shall issue a decision in writing on any such written grievance within five (5) days from the time such grievance meeting is adjourned.

10.2 Arbitration Procedure. If the grievance cannot be satisfactorily settled by the above steps of the grievance procedure, either of the Parties may request Arbitration by giving the other Party written notice of its desire to arbitrate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Employer or the Union has made its final written answer as provided in Step 3 (unless the Employer and the Union mutually agree in writing to extend the time limit), in which event the grievance shall be arbitrated according to the following procedure:

The Party desiring to arbitrate shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (with a copy of such request to the opposite Party) to furnish the Parties with a panel of seven (7) names of impartial arbitrators. From this panel a representative of the Employer and the Union shall select the Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall be selected by each Party striking in turn one strike at a time, three (3) names from the list of seven (7) persons, the complaining Party having the first strike. The person remaining on the list after each Party has exercised her/his strikes shall become the Arbitrator. Either party may request additional lists if those supplied are not satisfactory; to a maximum of three (3) lists. The Parties may select an Arbitrator by other means, if such other method of selection is confirmed by a written stipulation.

The selection of the Arbitrator and the hearing shall be within thirty (30) days of the request for Arbitration, whenever practicable.

The expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Employer, each Party bearing its own preparation and presentation expenses.

10.3 Final and Binding. Any decision reached at any stage of these grievance proceedings or by the Arbitration Procedure shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee(s) involved. The Employer, the Union and the aggrieved employee shall comply in all respects with the result of such decision reached. The Parties agree that such decision shall be enforceable in a court of law.

10.4 Arbitrator Limitations. Only one grievance may be decided by the Arbitrator at any hearing; however, the parties may agree to waive this requirement. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, ignore, or modify any of the terms, conditions or sections of this Agreement. His/her decision shall not go beyond what is necessary for the interpretation and application of this Agreement in the case of the specific grievance at issue. The Arbitrator shall not substitute her/his judgment for that of the Parties in the exercise of rights granted or retained by this Agreement. The Arbitrator shall render no award which shall be retroactive beyond the date the grievance was originally filed with Employer, or impose any liability not explicitly expressed herein.

10.5 Award of Arbitrator. Where an employee has been discharged in violation of this Agreement, the Arbitrator may order the employee reinstated, either with or without back pay for loss of income resulting from such discharge. An award of the Arbitrator shall not in any case be made retroactive to a date prior to the date on which the subject of the grievance occurred, and in no event more than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the filing of the grievance. The Arbitrator's written decision shall be issued within sixty (60) days of the hearing, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

10.6 Contract Remedy. When an employee has any complaint, grievance or difference regarding the application of the terms and conditions of this Agreement it is agreed that the grievant will use the grievance/arbitration procedure, section 10.1 and 10.3 - 10.6 set forth above before attempting to take the matter elsewhere.

10.7 Past Practice. The Parties agree to recognize the standards as set forth in Elkouri and Elkouri, How Arbitration Works, in determining past practice.

10.8 Effect of Time Limits. The parties agree to follow each of the foregoing steps in the processing of a grievance; and if, in any step, Employer's representative fails to give his/her written answer within the time limit therein set forth, the grievance shall automatically be transferred to the next step at the expiration of such time limit. Any grievance not moved by the Union to the next step within the time limits provided following Employer's answer will be considered settled on the basis of Employer's last answer.

10.9 Extension of Time Limits. The time limit to present or appeal a grievance may only be extended by mutual written agreement.

10.10 Investigation of Grievance(s). No Steward shall investigate or process a grievance during either his/her working time, or the working time of a grievant or grievants. If the grievance requires immediate attention, the Steward may obtain permission from his/her immediate supervisor. Employer will not pay any grievant or Union Steward for attendance at grievance and arbitration meetings or for time spent investigating or processing grievances. Stewards will be paid for time spent as a "Weingarten" representative.

ARTICLE 11

   a) Verbal warning
   b) Written warning
   c) Suspension
   d) Discharge

11.2 Written Notices. Written reprimands, notices of suspension and notices of discharge, which are to become part of the employee’s file, shall be read and signed by the employee. Such signature shall in no way be an admittance of wrongdoing on the part of the employee. A copy of such reprimands and/or notices shall be given to the employee and the Union.

11.3 Warning Notices – Cancellation. Warning notices shall not be used as a basis for discipline after a period of twelve (12) months provided there have been no other written notices of a similar nature.

11.4 Suspension and Discharges. All suspensions and discharges will be in written form and copies will be mailed or faxed to the Union immediately upon issuance of such notices. Discharges will be preceded by a suspension during which an investigation of the incident leading to the discharge will be conducted. No employee shall be placed on suspension pending investigation status longer that five (5) business days. When issues are brought to Human Resources they will be responded to within five (5) business days.

11.5 Disciplinary Meetings. In the event a meeting is held for disciplinary purposes, the affected employee shall have the right to request to have a Union steward and/or Union representative present. All such requests will be granted.

Any Associate desiring a leave of absence from the job because of extraordinary person or family circumstances must first secure written permission from the Employer. The Employer shall not be expected to grant a leave of absence that will interfere with the Employer’s operations. Leaves of absence shall be without pay. During a leave of absence, the Associate shall not engage in gainful employment. The Associate must report to work promptly after the leave has expired. Failure to comply with this Article shall result in the complete loss of seniority rights of the Associate involved. Seniority, vacation or other benefits shall not accrue during the leave unless the leave is for thirty (30) days or less.

12.2 Medical For Injury and Sickness. Any Associate who completes his/her probationary period and becomes ill and presents a physician’s statement of such illness to the Employer shall be granted a sick leave for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days. Such sick leave shall be extended for successive thirty (30) day periods upon presentation of a physician’s statement if the Associate’s health or physical condition is such as to prevent him/her from gainful employment for a maximum period of six (6) months. Vacation will not accrue during such leaves. Seniority will continue to accrue during such leaves, and previously accrued seniority shall be retained.

a) A physician’s statement shall not be necessary for illness or injuries of short duration, i.e., of up to three (3) days.

b) Return to Work. Provided, however, such jury duty pay shall be subject to the following conditions:

a) Available for Work and Notice. Employee must be available for work on the regular workday immediately preceding and following jury duty; and must notify the Employer prior to jury service and at the end of each week of jury duty.

Family and Medical Leave shall not be in addition to other leave time off under this Agreement. Associates must apply, provide all required documentation, and qualify in order to receive Family and Medical Leave. Eligible Associates shall have their health benefits continued for the duration of their Family and Medical Leave under the conditions coverage would have been provided if they had continued employment during this period. 13.3 Holidays Not Worked. All eligible employees, exclusive of probationary, shall receive holiday pay for the above listed holidays; provided the part-time employees regularly work the day on which the holiday falls. The holiday pay shall be based on the hours the employee normally works on that day of the week; to a maximum of eight (8) hours.

13.5.2 Have worked the scheduled hours on the workday immediately preceding and immediately following the holiday, unless the employee has failed to work the scheduled workdays with permission of the Company or is absent because:

(B) Employee is on an approved medical leave of absence.

(C) Jury duty requires absence from work.

13.7 Computation of Overtime. Eligible employees required to work on any of the recognized holidays shall receive straight-time pay for the actual hours worked on such holidays in addition to the holiday pay. Holiday pay shall not be considered hours worked for computation of weekly overtime pay. 13.8 Layoff of Eligible Full-Time Employees. As an exception to 13.5 above, an eligible, full-time employee with two (2) years or more of continuous employment with the Employer who is laid off during a period of six (6) days immediately preceding a recognized holiday, or six (6) days immediately following a recognized holiday shall not suffer a loss in holiday pay to which he/she is otherwise entitled.

ARTICLE 14
VACATIONS

14.1 Amount of Vacation.

a) All regular full-time and regular part-time employees who have at least one (1) full year of seniority shall be entitled to a paid vacation on the following basis.

<table>
<tr>
<th>Continuous Service</th>
<th>Vacation Period</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>One year, but less than two years</td>
<td>One week (5 days)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Two years, but less than ten years</td>
<td>Two weeks (10 days)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ten years, but less than twenty years</td>
<td>Three weeks (15 days)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Twenty years, or more</td>
<td>Four weeks (20 days)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

b) Temporary layoffs or leaves of absence during the year shall not interrupt the continuity of seniority for the purpose of determining the amount of vacation for which an employee is eligible.

c) Employees requesting vacation pay three (3) weeks in advance of their approved vacation time shall be entitled to receive their vacation pay before they leave for vacation.

14.2 Vacation Pay Calculation. Employees shall be entitled to vacation benefits at straight-time rates of pay on the same basis that their work is performed. Employees working either full-time or short shifts shall be paid vacation pay based on total hours paid in the accrual year, including premium, overtime, vacation and holiday hours. However, no employee shall be entitled to more than forty (40) hours of vacation pay per week. The following shall be the method of computing vacation pay:
a) Number of months in the accrual years times 1/12 times the number of weekly average hours.

b) After two (2) full accrual years, two (2) times the number of weekly average hours.

c) After ten (10) full accrual years, three (3) times the number of weekly average hours.

d) After twenty (20) full accrual years, four (4) times the number of weekly average hours.

14.3 Scheduling Vacation Periods. To the extent business requirements permit, employee requests for a specific period in which to take vacations will be honored. Furthermore, the most senior employees shall have preference as to the time they take their vacation so far as the efficient operation of the business will permit. Where more than one (1) employee in a job classification desires their vacations at the same time, vacation periods will be assigned according to seniority. Employer and the employee may mutually agree upon time of vacation period.

The Employer reserves the right to schedule vacations so that they will not interfere with business operations, but each employee should be entitled to take her/his vacation not later than six (6) months after she/he has qualified for it. Vacations are not cumulative and must be taken within the vacation period established by the Employer. This section shall not be construed to reduce vacation benefits established by past practice.

Two (2) weeks of vacation can be carried over to the next year with prior management authorization. Any vacation carried over shall be paid at the wage rate in effect at the time the vacation was earned.

In the event an employee requested his/her vacation and it was not granted during the employee’s anniversary year, the vacation will be carried over to the next year and such vacation will be paid at the rate when vacation is taken.

Management approval of any employee’s request for a personal day, diversity day or vacation day for “special circumstances” requested in writing with more than 4 weeks in advance will be based on seniority.

14.4 No Work During Vacation. Once a request for vacation has been approved by the Employer, the vacation dates shall not be changed unless by mutual consent of the Employer and the employee.

14.5 Terminated Employees. Employees who are discharged or who terminate their employment shall be entitled to pro-rated vacation pay earned. Provided however, employees who are discharged for theft, physical violence, or illegal activity, shall not be entitled to such pro-rated vacation pay. Employees voluntarily terminate employment must first notify the Employer two (2) weeks prior to such termination in order to be eligible to receive such pro-rated vacation pay.

ARTICLE 15
HEALTH, LIFE, DISABILITY AND DENTAL INSURANCE

Section 1. Employer Contributions: Effective July 1, 2013, the Employer under this Agreement agrees to remit not later than the twentieth (20th) day of the month following the preceding work month to the Local 17 Hospitality Benefits-Trust Fund ("the Fund"), in order to provide benefits under the Fund, a total contribution of $429.00, or any subsequent monthly contribution established by the Trustees of the Fund, on behalf of all employees who have completed and maintained the eligibility requirements established in Section 3 of this Article.

At the time of hire or re-hire, Employees must choose whether to accept or reject the above listed insurance benefits. The Employer shall provide to each new (and returning) employee an Enrollment Card on which THE EMPLOYEE SHALL STATE THE CHOICE OF ACCEPTING OR REJECTING THE BENEFITS. If there is no completed Enrollment Card for a particular Employee, then the parties hereto agree that the Employee has chosen to accept the benefits, and the Employer agrees to submit corresponding contributions to the Fund. In order that the Fund may make a determination on Employee eligibility, the Employer agrees to provide the Fund with all hours paid on all Employees from first hour worked by all Employees.

The parties hereto agree that the Fund’s Board of Trustees reserves the right to establish and adjust contribution rates required by Participating Employers in order to maintain the reserves necessary to assure the Fund’s viability. If there is a contribution rate adjustment, then the Employer agrees to pay 100% of any monthly contribution increase.

Section 2 – Employee Contributions: Effective September 1, 2014, Employees covered under the Plan must pay fifteen dollars ($15.00) per month through authorized payroll deduction. Employees not having sufficient funds on their paychecks to cover this cost must pay the Employer the required amount for submission by the Employer to the Fund along with the Employer contributions. Employees not providing the Employer with their portion of the contribution as required will be dropped from the Plan and not eligible to participate until the next open enrollment period. The responsibility for providing the required co-payment to the Employer for submission to the Fund lies with the Employee. Employees will not be billed or given notification of insufficient funds on their paychecks. Neither the Fund nor the Employer assumes any responsibility for benefits or for claims made by any Employee who fails to make the necessary co-payment to maintain their benefits. Employees dropped from the Plan by failure to pay are not eligible for COBRA. The Employer shall not be obligated to make contributions on any Employee who fails to submit the required co-payment.

Section 3 Eligibility. Employees are eligible for Fund benefits after they have worked three (3) consecutive months with 75 hours per month. The Employee must designate on the Enrollment Card at the time of hire their option of accepting or rejecting benefits. Eligibility is maintained by working 75 hours per month or more, thereafter, on a rolling three (3) month average.

The Employer agrees to pay the contribution amount in the fourth (4th) month following the Employee's third (3rd) work month of 75 hours per month or more, as stated in Section 1. When payment is received in the fourth (4th) month, then the Employee's coverage will begin in the fifth (5th) month.

Effective February 1, 2016 the Employer shall make contributions on all hours paid for all employees covered by this Agreement into the Greater Metropolitan Employer-Employees Benefit Fund on the following schedule: (Employees who are covered in the Local 17 Fund shall be made immediately eligible for benefits once payment is received for January 2016 hours.)

Contributions. Effective January 1, 2016 the Employer agrees to contribute to the Fund two dollars and seventy cents ($2.70) for each hour paid to all employees under the jurisdiction of this Agreement. Effective May 1, 2016, the Employer agrees to contribute to the Fund two dollars and eighty five cents ($2.85) for each hour paid to all employees under the jurisdiction of this Agreement. Effective May 1, 2017 the Employer agrees to contribute to the Fund three dollars ($3.00) for each hour paid to all employees under the jurisdiction of this Agreement. Effective May 1, 2018 the Employer agrees to contribute to the Fund three dollars and fifteen cents ($3.15) for each hour paid to all employees under the jurisdiction of this Agreement.

b) Benefits. The Fund Trustees are expressly authorized to adjust benefit levels and/or eligibility for same to maintain the solvency of the Fund.

c) Employer Obligation. The Employer's obligation to contribute to the Health and Welfare Fund is limited to the amount of contribution specified in Article 15.

d) Employees pay no premium cost for individual benefits during the term of the agreement, but the Trustees reserve the right to make benefit adjustments to keep the Fund solvent and viable.

Vacation and Holiday Towards Eligibility: Vacation and Holiday or other time off for which payment is actually made to the Employee shall be considered as hours worked for the purpose of maintaining medical and dental eligibility.
Section 4 Employer Deductions. The Employer agrees to deduct the appropriate amount from the paycheck of any Employee who authorizes such deduction in writing to provide payment to the Fund for the Employee's contribution under either Section 2 or Section 5.

Section 5 Self-Pay. All eligible Employees, as determined by Section 3 above, who fall below the required hours for Health and Welfare coverage or who terminate their employment shall be permitted to submit to the Fund self-payments for up to the amount of time required under the Comprehensive Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1986 ("COBRA"). When applicable, the Employer agrees to deduct the Employee's COBRA from the paycheck of the Employees.

Section 6 Dependent Care Reimbursement. Employees covered under the benefits of the Trust Fund are eligible for the “dependent reimbursement” established by the Trustees by making application to the Trust Fund.

Section 7 Trustees. The Fund is administered by six (6) Trustees, three (3) Trustees to be selected by the Employers and three (3) to be selected by the Union. The Employer adopts the Fund’s Agreement and Declaration of Trust as of October 24, 1952, as revised and amended.

Section 8 Collection of Delinquent Contributions.

(a) The provisions of the Fund’s Agreement and Declaration of Trust, as amended, are expressly incorporated herein and the Employer signatory to this agreement agrees to be bound by the provisions of said Trust agreement. The Employer further agrees to all of the rules and regulations heretofore and hereafter adopted by the trustees of said Trust Fund pursuant to said Trust Agreement and all of the actions of the trustees in administering such trust in accordance with the Trust Agreement and rules adopted.

(b) The Employer hereby accepts as Employer trustees the present Employer trustees appointed under said Trust Agreement and all such past or succeeding Employer trustees as shall have been or will be appointed in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement. The Union hereby accepts as Union Trustees the present Union trustees appointed under said Trust Agreement and all such past or succeeding trustees as shall have been or will be appointed in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement.

(c) The payments required by this Article shall be made not later than the 20th day of the month following the month in which the Employee worked.

(d) In the event that an Employer fails or refuses to submit the contributions required by this Article, the Fund may bring an action in either federal or state court.
seeking legal and/or equitable relief. In any such action, the Trust Fund shall be entitled to recover from the Employer the following:

1) The principal amount of the Employer’s delinquency;

2) The attorney fees and costs incurred by the Fund in collecting the contributions;

3) Such other legal or equitable relief as the court deems appropriate.

(e) In bringing an action to collect contributions required by this Article, the Fund shall not be obligated to exhaust any contractual remedies such as the grievance procedures set forth in this Collective Bargaining Agreement.

(f) In determining whether the Employers signatory to this Agreement are properly reporting and remitting payment in accordance with the provisions of this Article, the Fund is hereby authorized to examine the payroll and such other pertinent records of the Employer as the Fund deems necessary. In conducting such an examination, the Fund is authorized to review the payroll and other pertinent records of all bargaining unit Employees.

(g) If any Employee’s entitlement to the benefits provided by the Fund is suspended by virtue of a signatory Employer’s failure to pay the contributions required by this Article, the Employer shall be directly liable to the Employee for the benefits to which the Employee would otherwise have been entitled.

ARTICLE 16
PENSION/401K

All employees covered by this Agreement shall be permitted to participate in Graves Hospitality 401k and Pension programs on the same terms and conditions as similarly situated employees not covered by this Agreement. shall continue in full force and effect. Provided, furthermore, the Union and the Employer agree to meet and confer within two (2) weeks of any ruling invalidating any
