ARTICLE 9 SENIORITY

9.1 - Definition -

a) Seniority shall mean continuous length of service in the establishment from first day of work in the classifications covered by this Agreement after completing probation. Such classifications are set forth in Appendix B, incorporated herein. With the exception of the banquet service staff and banquet bartenders, such seniority shall be established by being regularly scheduled in a classification. Employees who work on an intermittent basis in another classification shall not build seniority in that classification.

b) Banquet Servers and Banquet Bartenders - Banquet servers and banquet bartenders shall accrue seniority from first function worked after completion of the probationary period in the classification within either the regular or extra list where such lists apply. Employees moving from the regular list to the extra list shall be placed on the extra list in accordance with their overall banquet server seniority, i.e., dovetailed. Employees moving from the extra to the regular list shall be placed at the bottom of such list.

9.2 - Same Start Date - In the event two (2) or more employees begin work on the same day, a numerical suffix will be attached to the seniority date of such employees based on the last four digits of the employee's social security number. The employee with the lowest four digit number shall be deemed the most senior.

9.3 - Probationary Period - New Employees - Any new employee shall be employed on a sixty (60) day trial or probationary basis, during which time she/he may be discharged without recourse; provided, however, that this probationary period will be automatically extended an additional thirty (30) days after written notice to the Union and the employee of such extension and the reason therefore. After the trial period, she/he shall be placed on the seniority list and her/his seniority shall then date from the first day of her/his current period of employment.

9.4 - Probation Period - New Classification - An employee promoted to a higher classification shall serve twenty (20) working days probationary period. During the probationary period, the Employer may return the employee to their previously held classification, room and schedule, for inability to perform the duties of the new job, or the employee may elect to return to their previously held classification, room and schedule. Employees so returning to previous work shall suffer no loss of seniority.

9.5 - Areas of Seniority - The Employer and Union agree to recognize seniority in the following areas:

a) Employees shall be laid off and returned to work according to their length of service in their respective job classifications as set out in 9.6 and 9.8 below.

b) Scheduling of PTO time.

c) Offering of overtime work and requiring in reverse order.

d) Employees may exercise their seniority to not work New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, if business permits with the junior employee(s) in the classification being required to work as needed. To be excused employees shall give the Employer one (1) week notice prior to the posted schedule. Employees regularly scheduled to work the day on which the holiday is celebrated may not be bumped out of their shift.

e) Scheduling of Work - Where practical, senior employees who are qualified shall be scheduled to receive the maximum number of available hours on the work schedule up to an eight (8) hour day, five (5) day, forty (40) hour week. Senior employees may not claim part of a shift and may claim shifts only when they become available on a regular basis. Split shifts shall be considered separate shifts for scheduling purposes. It is understood that employees shall not be permitted to establish their own work schedules nor shall they be permitted to work overtime without the specific approval of their Supervisor. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as a guarantee of a minimum number of hours or days of work. For purposes of scheduling, employees changing shifts or rooms shall go to the bottom of that list.

f) Promotion, demotion or transfer to new job openings.

g) Upon request in writing, any employee scheduled less than five (5) days per week may exercise her/his seniority for five (5) days of work per week when additional shifts become vacated on a regular basis, unless such shifts are eliminated. The employee must bid the five (5) day schedule as posted.

h) Bartenders whose hours are involuntarily reduced below those for which they are regularly scheduled will be permitted to pick up available hours at banquet bars on the basis of their seniority.

i) Room Scheduling - Employees working within a classification but moving into a different room shall initially be scheduled on the basis of their seniority using the date entering the room. When new openings occur scheduling will be on the basis of their classification seniority.

j) Preferential Rooms and Stations - Where rooms and/or stations are assigned on a permanent basis, rather than being rotated, all employees shall be given preferential rooms and/or stations on the basis of seniority, provided they are qualified.

k) Use of Part-Time Employees - Where practical, the Employer shall not use two (2) or more part-time employees where a qualified, full-time employee is available and requests such hours; except in those scheduling situations where the Employer is required to meet the report-in provisions (8.12), the available work requires the use of overlapping schedules or a split shift (except wait staff) or where such scheduling is otherwise not practical in the Employer's operations. Provided the employee has the qualifications and ability to perform the work.

9.6 - Layoffs and Recalls - During layoffs or reductions in the working force, the employee with the least seniority in the job classification affected shall be laid off first. When the working force is again increased, employees on layoff shall be recalled in the order of their job classification seniority, unless circumstances have occurred during the layoff which make them disqualified. Ability to perform the work available shall be a determining factor in following the principle that the last employee laid off will be the first employee rehired. Employees shall be given a minimum of three (3) days notice prior to layoff.

9.7 - Bumping - Bumping shall not be permitted except in cases of layoff as described in 9.6 and 9.8.

9.8 - Classification Seniority - Employees changing classifications shall begin their seniority for scheduling on day of entry into the new classification. During layoffs or reduction in the work force within a classification, an employee may exercise any accrued seniority in their prior classification to revert to the classification from which she/he was last transferred.

9.9 - Notice of Recall - Where an employee is notified at the time of layoff when she/he is to report back to work, she/he will promptly report at such time without further notice. When an employee is not notified at the time of layoff when she/he is to report back to work, she/he shall be given three (3) days notice of when to report back to work, if the period of layoff has been less than fourteen (14) days. If the layoff period extends for fourteen (14) days or more, the employee shall be given seven (7) days notice of the time to report back to work. Notice to report back to work shall be given by a letter to the address furnished to the Employer by the employee. While waiting for an employee to report back to work, the Employer may utilize any other available person to perform the work.

9.10 - Loss of Seniority - Seniority and job rights shall be terminated for the following reasons, as well as any other reasons established under the terms of this Agreement:

- a) Voluntary quitting.
- b) Discharge for cause.
- c) Failure to return to work after recall as provided.
- d) Failure to return to work promptly at the end of an authorized leave of absence, unless due to Act of God.
- e) Remaining on layoff for longer than twelve (12) months.
- f) Terminates employment from the regular schedule and works on an intermittent call-basis only.

9.11 - Job Posting - New job openings will be posted for a minimum of five (5) days, including the weekend and will be awarded to qualified applicants. If qualifications are equal, seniority shall prevail, however the employer may consider the employee's active disciplinary record. The job opening may be filled from any source on a temporary basis during its vacancy.

9.12 - Seniority List - The Employer shall furnish an accurate seniority list to the Union within ten (10) days of the date on which this Agreement is signed. Thereafter, the Employer shall notify the Union of each employee who has been separated from employment and such other monthly information on employees as has been provided. An updated seniority list shall be posted every six (6) months in all departments.

9.13 - Lead Employees - Lead employees in the bargaining unit will be scheduled according to their classification seniority unless they are needed at specific times to perform supervisory duties. The Employer may select bargaining unit lead employees without regard to seniority. Lead employees may be demoted to non-lead status with no recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure. Demoted employees may exercise their seniority as an exception to 9.7, Bumping, and assume the schedule to which their seniority entitles them.

ARTICLE 10
GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

10.1 - Grievance Procedure for Employees - Should differences arise concerning the Employer, the Union and/or any employee who has completed her/his probationary period, as to the meaning and application of this Agreement, the following procedure shall be followed by an employee and the Union.

Step 1 - The employee may take up the matter with her/his supervisor on an informal basis in order to settle the matter promptly. An aggrieved employee may have the Union Steward Assist her/him with Step1, if she/he so desires.

Step 2 - If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 1, the aggrieved employee or the Union shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days from the date on which the incident which gave rise to the grievance occurred, file a written grievance with the Director of Human Resources, provided however, the fourteen (14) calendar day requirement and the written grievance requirement may be waived by mutual written agreement. Failure to file such written grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days shall result in such grievance being presumed to be without merit and it shall be barred from further consideration. The written grievance shall set forth the facts giving rise to the grievance, including the date and persons involved, and designate the provisions of the Agreement which allegedly have been violated.

Step 3 - The representative or representatives of the Employer will confer with the Union Steward and/or Union Business Agent within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of such written grievance in an effort to settle the grievance, unless the time limit is extended by mutual written agreement of the Parties. If not settled at this conference, the Employer shall issue a decision in writing on any such written grievance within seven (7) days from the time such grievance meeting is adjourned.

10.2 - Employer/Union Grievances - Any grievance the Employer or Union may have raised within the time limits set forth in Step 2, Section 10.1 above, shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the other Party's designated representative who will arrange a meeting according to the provisions set out in Step 3, section 10.1 above. If the matter is not satisfactorily settled in Step 3, the grievance may be processed through the Arbitration Procedure.

10.3 Effect of Failure to Appeal- Any grievance not appealed to a succeeding step within the time limits specified shall be deemed abandoned and not entitled to further consideration. Such abandonment by the Employer shall be deemed acceptance of the grievance as stated and the remedy requested shall be accepted and enforced.

10.4 - Arbitration Procedure - If the grievance cannot be satisfactorily settled by the above steps of the grievance procedure, either of the Parties may request Arbitration by giving the other Party written notice of its desire to arbitrate within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Employer or the Union has made its final written answer as provided in Step 3 (unless the Employer and the Union mutually agree in writing to extend the time limit), in which event the grievance shall be arbitrated according to the following procedure:

The Party desiring to arbitrate shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (with a copy of such request to the opposite Party) to furnish the Parties with a panel of nine (9), if available, or seven (7) names of impartial arbitrators. From this panel a representative of the Employer and the Union shall select the Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall be selected by each Party striking in turn one strike at a time, four (4) names from the list of nine (9) persons, three (3) names from a list of seven (7) the complaining Party having the first strike. The person remaining on the list after each Party has exercised her/his strikes shall become the Arbitrator. Either party may request additional lists if those supplied are not satisfactory; to a maximum of three (3) lists. The Parties may select an Arbitrator by other means, if such other method of selection is confirmed by a written stipulation.

The selection of the Arbitrator and the hearing shall be within thirty (30) days of the request for Arbitration, whenever practicable.

The expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Employer, each Party bearing its own preparation and presentation expenses.

The time limits for requesting arbitration are mandatory and failure to comply with them will result in the grievance being barred and permanently waived and will not be submitted to arbitration. The time limit may be extended by mutual written agreement.

10.5 - Final and Binding - Any decision reached at any stage of these grievance proceedings or by the Arbitration Procedure shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee(s) involved. The Employer, the Union and the aggrieved employee shall comply in all respects with the result of such decision reached. The Parties agree that such decision shall be enforceable in a court of law.

10.6 - Arbitrator Limitations - The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, ignore, or modify any of the terms, conditions or sections of this Agreement. His/her decision shall not go beyond what is necessary for the interpretation and application of this Agreement in the case of the specific grievance at issue. The Arbitrator shall not substitute her/his judgment for that of the Parties in the exercise of rights granted or retained by this Agreement.

10.7 - Award of Arbitrator - Where an employee has been discharged in violation of this Agreement, the Arbitrator may order the employee reinstated, either with or without back pay for loss of income resulting from such discharge. Any back pay award shall be reduced by unemployment compensation, insofar as the state does not recover the payments to the employee, or disability payments and/or outside earnings. An award of the Arbitrator shall not in any case be made retroactive to a date prior to the date on which the subject of the grievance occurred, and in no event more than thirty (30) calendar days prior to the filing of the grievance. The Arbitrator's written decision shall be issued within sixty (60) days of the hearing, unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing.

10.8 - Contract Remedy - When an employee has any complaint, grievance or difference regarding the application of the terms and conditions of this Agreement it is agreed that the grievant will use the grievance/arbitration procedure, section 10.1 and 10.3 - 10.6 set forth above before attempting to take the matter elsewhere.
