

Watch Out For These COVID-19 Scams!

Scams that Offer a Cure for COVID-19

There is currently no cure or vaccine for COVID-19.

Scams that Claim to be the IRS

The IRS will never call, e-mail or text you for money or personal information.

Scams that Offer or Ask You for Money

Never send money to someone you don't know either over the phone or on the web.

Scams that Pressure You to Act NOW!

You will never have to act immediately to prevent service termination.

Scams Selling Fake COVID-19 Test Kits

Only healthcare professionals can obtain and administer COVID-19 tests.

Robocalls, E-mails and Fake Websites

Avoid suspicious calls, websites and e-mails.

If you suspect a scam please do the following:

If you suspect you are being are being conned, hang up immediately and stop communicating.

Call your state's attorney general's hotline. Find your state's attorney general office here:

<https://www.naag.org/naag/attorneys-general/whos-my-ag.php>

Report the scam to the FTC here:

<https://www.ftccomplaintassistant.gov/#crnt&panel1-1>